The ticket is cut apart before voting, and deposited in boxes labelled "Judiciary" and "County" ticket respectively.

A LETTER by the last steamer, dated Florence, December 3, says: "The papers are constantly citing the American example of industry and we have the satisfaction of knowing that our influence is continually working and helping to transform these old societies. In no one thing is our example worth more to these European communities than in the model which we have given them—and for which they thank us, and are ready to imitate as soon as they can—of universal public instruction."

SENATOR SHERMAN has been incorrectly reported as pronouncing for the impeachment of Johnson. He had not expressed any opinion on that question. Being a Senator, and therefore one of the jury who will try Mr. Johnson if the charges are preferred by the House of Representatives against him, he has scrupulously avoided committing himself on this point. What he did say was, that he had no doubt Mr. Stanton would be restored to his office by the Senate, unless the President's reasons for removing him were different from what they were represented to be.

POLITICAL.

The German Republicans in New York have called a State Convention at Syracuse tomorrow.

The current in Tennessee is setting strongly in favor of Governor Brownlow for United States Senator.

General Sickles received an official letter from Governor Orr, of South Carolina, Friday evening, in which the latter states that while he was at first opposed to some of Gen. Sickles's orders while in command of the Third Military District, he is now satisfied that his administration was, on the whole, marked by great wisdom, moderation and forbearance. This, he says, is the sentiment of the element in South Carolina which he (Orr) represents. He further states that he believes the people of South Carolina are largely indebted to Gen. Sickles's administration for much of the prosperity and good order prevailing there. The Governor closes his letter, which is quite lengthy, with expressions of regret at the removal of Sickles.

WASHINGTON, September 22, 1867.

The Election in Louisiana.

Information received here to-day from New Orleans indicates that the Louisiana State election, fixed by Gen. Sheridan before he was relieved for the 27th of September, will be postponed, owing to the prevailing epidemic. The yellow fever is so prevalent that it is doubtful if half of the registered vote could be polled in that portion of the State below Baton Rouge. Gen. Mower has the matter under consideration, and as Gen. Hancock has not formally assumed command, the discretion of postponing it rests with him as acting commander. Gen. Hancock states that he will remain in Washington several days, and endeavor to obtain a thorough knowledge of the reconstruction acts before returning to St. Louis. The President fully approves of his remaining at St. Louis until the 15th of October.

Order No. 10.

It appears that an official correspondence has taken place between General Grant and General Canby, relative to the order number ten, about which so much has been said. General Canby has not suspended the order, but takes up and examines each case that comes under it. In those where the military authorities are satisfied that an effort is being made improperly by a debtor to defraud a creditor, the execution of the judgment of the court is not interfered with, but it is believed that where a debtor will lose all of his property in order to satisfy a small judgment, order No. 10 will be enforced the same as under General Sickles's command.

ST. LOUIS.

Important Suit—Politics in Kansas—The Indian Council at North Platte—General Sherman Speaks His Views.

ST. LOUIS, September 22.—Wm. H. Pritchard of this city, has brought suit in the Circuit Court against Barton Able, United States Internal Revenue Collector, for the recovery of a certain sum obtained by the latter by seizure and distraint of the former's goods under the income tax law. The plaintiff claims that said law is unconstitutional and designs testing the matter before the Courts. The case will be transferred from the Circuit Court of the country to the United States District Court and will go to the United States Supreme Court.

Wm. A. Burleigh, delegate to Congress from Dakota, arrived at St. Joseph yesterday en route East.

The Democracy of Kansas held a convention at Leavenworth last week, adopted a platform, and made preparations for meeting the radicals on the stump and prosecuting a vigorous campaign against negro suffrage. It is claimed the Republican party is much split on the questions of female suffrage, temperance and Sunday laws. The Germans will hold a convention at Topeka on the 25th to consider the latter question, and the State Temperance Society will meet at Lawrence this week for the alleged purpose of looking after the Germans.

The Republican's special from Omaha has the following: "The council at North Platte resulted in nothing conclusive. The Indians frankly stated the causes of the trouble. Gen. Sherman, on behalf of the Commission, delivered an answer, which was plain, sharp and explicit. If the Indians hold Smoky Hill, the road must be built. They must not interfere with the Government. He suppose the road was agreed upon by the Cheyennes four years ago. The military posts and mail stations built two years ago were not then considered a cause for war. If the Indians are damaged they will be compensated. He thought they had agreed on the Powder River road, in the Laramie treaty last spring. While the Indians continue to wage war, the road won't be given up, but if the Indian's right is found good it will be given up or compensation paid therefor if they keep peace. Powder and lead wouldn't be given them until a definitive treaty was made. A railroad train had been attacked and men were killed who had no guns, but who were bringing goods, some of which were to feed Indians. A proposition was then submitted for the Indians to accept homes on a new reservation, and they were given until the first of November to answer at the council to be held at North Platte. Meantime they could hunt on the Republican. The General represented that we were building costly roads, and they could not be stopped no more than the sun and moon in the East. They hardly think what they call war here is, but if they make up their minds for war, it will come to the plains as thick where they are as the largest herds of buffaloes and kill you all. He told the Indians that if they wanted to go East and see for themselves they would be dead-headed through.

The chiefs responded that they only asked ammunition, which the commission finally concluded to give. The Commissioners returned to Omaha to-day and will separate to meet at Fort Harker. Gen. Sherman will come to St. Louis, via Chicago.

FROM SOUTH AMERICA.

Extension of Panama Railroad—Death of Gen. Cook, United States Secretary of Legation—War Preparations in Peru—The Trans-Continental Railway Project.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 18.—The Bulletin's correspondence from Panama gives the following late intelligence: The extension of the Panama Railroad franchise is confirmed. The bill passed the National Congress at Bogota August 15th, and was signed by the Executive the following day. The general terms are already announced. Twenty-five dollars annual rental goes to the State of Panama in consideration of ceding the Island of Manuenillo, and whatever lands may be requisite for improvements in connection with the works. The railroad will now be extended by a new wharf to the island, obviating the necessity for lighters and tenders.

Valparaiso dates to August 16th give no new developments concerning the war with Spain. Nothing has been heard of the Spanish fleet. The excitement in Valparaiso had subsided, but commercial interests were unsettled.

General Cook, United States Secretary of Legation, died at Santiago August 6th, and was buried with military honors. His disease was contracted in Southern prisons. The Wateree left Valparaiso for Callao on the 12th of July, with General Hovey on board. The Nijack is cruising to the northward. A slight shock of an earthquake was felt at Valparaiso on the 9th.

War preparations are going on in Peru with energy. President Prado is much praised by the people and press.

Advices from Guatamala report some revolutionary disturbances of small proportions. The cholera continues ravaging certain districts of Nicaragua. Costo Rica quiet and progressing favorably. The Trans-Continental Railroad project is again attracting attention. A representative of the house of Keith & Co., contractors, for a section between Lemon and Pocuare, had arrived at San Jose. A party of engineers is expected from New York to join in carrying out a complete survey. Keith & Co. express a highly favorable opinion of the practicability of the projected road from Punta Arenas to the Capital of the Government, and the people are strongly in favor of it, and hope the Americans who have it in charge will beat the English railway projectors in Nicaragua.

HIS RECEPTION.

Grand Procession, Addresses, &c.

On the 22d of May, just four months ago, the Right Rev. M. Domenec, Bishop of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Pittsburgh, sailed from this country, for Rome, to attend the Ecclesiastical Council, and bear with him to the Holy Father the sympathies of the clergy and laiety under his charge, and to lay before him a pecuniary offering amounting to $11,000 in gold. This duty being discharged, and the business of the Council having ended, Bishop Domenec sailed for Spain, of which country he is a native, for the purpose of visiting his friends and relatives there. The Spanish Bishops had gone to Rome in a war vessel, fitted up under the direction of the Government, and in this vessel the Bishop took passage. After spending some time in his native country, he started for home, arriving in New York on Saturday last. As other bishops, from various parts of the United States, had been received with pomp and ceremony on their return, the Catholics of this diocese determined to extend to their beloved Bishop a suitable welcome. Arrangements were accordingly made for a grand procession of the various religious societies, and a formal address of welcome at St. Paul's Cathedral. The Bishop having announced that he would reach here on the Express train from the East at two o'clock Sunday afternoon, it was arranged to meet him at East Liberty, on the arrival of the train there, and escort him to this city. A Reception Committee, consisting of four members from each congregation in the two cities and vicinity, was appointed to visit East Liberty, receive the Bishop on the arrival of the train, and escort him to the city. It was also arranged to have a procession of the various religious societies, to meet the Bishop at the city line and escort him to St. Paul's Cathedral.

AT EAST LIBERTY.

The Reception Committee, numbering more than fifty carriages, left this city at noon, and proceeded to East Liberty by way of Lawrenceville. The procession was headed by the St. Paul's Committee, consisting of Messrs. N. Grattan Murphy, Henry Freyvogle, James McCabe and Mr. Owens. The Young Men's Society of the Blessed Virgin also accompanied the Committee, in carriages. The party reached East Liberty at a quarter past one o'clock, and halted in front of the Western Exchange. The train arrived at two o'clock, being about half an hour behind time. The Bishop was escorted at once to the Western Exchange Hotel, where he remained long enough to change his dress, putting on a barrette, cassock and purple cape, so that the public might be able to distinguish him. He was then placed in a carriage, in which were Father Mullen, of Allegheny, Vicar General, and Father Petz (German) Vicar General. This carriage was drawn by four horses.

Among the clergymen from a distance who served on this reception committee were Father Reynolds, of Loretto; Father Wimmer, of St. Vincent Monastery, near Latrobe; Fathers Luke, Martin, Thomas and O'Connor, from the Passionist Monastery near Birmingham; Father Rearney, of Sharpsburgh; Father Burrell, of East Liberty; Father Smith, of McKeesport, and others.

THE PROCESSION.

At one o'clock the procession began to form in this city, the various societies marching to the starting ground on Liberty street, opposite the Union Depot. The column was here formed in line, and moved in the following order:

Chief Marshal—Lucas Dressell.
Assistant Marshals—Dr. George H. Keyser, Mr. Gaus and Geo. Kunkel.
Great Western Brass Band.
Brotherhood of St. Joseph, (St. Paul's Church,) Geo. Barnes, Marshal.
St. Philomena Society, Fifth Ward—B. Hyle, Marshal.
St. Alphonsius' Society, Fifth Ward—John Snyder, Marshal.
St. Stephens' Society, Fifth Ward—John Schwinehart, Marshal.
St. Peter's Society, Reisville—Geo. Shafer, Marshal.
St. Bridget Society, (St. Paul's Church,) L. Ennis and John McKeefray, Marshals.

St. Valentine Society, (St. Mary's Church.)
St. Joseph Society, (St. Mary's Church.)
St. Vincent de Paul Society, Allegheny.
St. Peter's Society, (St. Peter's Church Allegheny.)

The Allegheny Division was under the marshalship of M. Gans.

Birmingham Silver Cornet Band.
Brotherhood of St. John, Birmingham, T. Britt, Marshal.
St. Michael's Society, Birmingham, Anton Schmidt, President; W. Bumgarten, Marshal.
St. Roches Society, Birmingham, George Kunkel, President.
St. Boniface Society, Birmingham, B. Miller, President; George Banidauf, Marshal.
Washington Cornet Band.
St. Vincent de Paul Society, St. Paul's Conference, Marshals, W. Cody, R. A. McGinty and Michael Garrity.
St. Augustine Society, Lawrenceville, Thomas Lendenfelzer, President.

The procession marched along Liberty to Canal street, thence across to Penn, and along Penn street to Boundary street, where a halt was ordered.

ON THE WAY.

To Lawrenceville the procession gained large accessions of citizens—the streets on the route being densely crowded by men, women and children—thousands of whom followed on to the city line. The day was bright and beautiful and the gay regalias, the gold and damask banners of the orders, the beautiful flags, and the soul-stirring music formed an attraction rarely witnessed in our streets. The march was rendered unpleasant, however, by the immense clouds of dust put in motion by the moving masses.

THE MEETING AT LAWRENCEVILLE.

At half-past two o'clock the carriages containing the Bishop and the Reception Committee appeared in sight, and the column was ordered to countermarch. The carriage containing the Right Reverend Bishop, and the Vicars General, brought up the rear.

THE RETURN.

The procession moved along Penn street, on its return, and at every cross street dense masses of people poured in, filling the street to its utmost capacity. On reaching St. Philomena's church, in the Fifth ward, it was scarcely possible for the column to find room to pass, so dense was the assemblage. The bells on this church sent forth a merry chime, which added materially to the attraction, and served to swell the numbers.

On reaching Canal street the procession passed up to Liberty, and thence across to the head of Grant street, where the Societies connected with St. Paul's Cathedral formed in open ranks, the balance of the procession passing through with uncovered heads, towards the Cathedral.

THE SERVICES AT THE CATHEDRAL.

On reaching the Cathedral, on Grant street, the various religious societies were furnished with seats, after which the doors were thrown open to the public, but hundreds of persons were unable to procure admittance as the spacious building was soon filled to overflowing.

At the Cathedral the Rt. Rev. Bishop was received by the Pastor of the Cathedral, Very Rev. J. Hickey, in the manner provided by the Roman Pontifical. As he advanced up the aisle he was preceded by the Great Western Band, the music of which added greatly to the solemnity of the occasion. After remaining for a few minutes in front of the Grand Altar, he proceeded to the Throne, where, vested with the coppa magna, he awaited the delivery of the addresses on the part of the clergy and laity.

ADDRESS OF FATHER MULLEN.

Very Rev. Father Mullen, of St. Peter's Church, Allegheny City, then read the address of welcome in English.

The address was then read in German by Father Petz, Rector of St. Philomena Church, after which Bishop Domenec delivered a reply.

ADDRESS OF BISHOP DOMENEC.

The Bishop responded to each point of the address just read, dwelling more especially on the last, which gave expression to the feelings of the people on his return to the city. After what he had seen and heard on this solemn occasion, and after witnessing this magnificent reception, he felt grateful to the members of the church in this Diocese. He considered that all this came from the hearts of the people who had assembled, and it showed that the gospel of God had sunk deep in their minds. What had prompted them to make this demonstration? It had been made on the occasion of his return from Rome, where he had been on a visit to the Holy See. He did not consider the demonstration as referring to him personally, but thought it was given to him as the representative of the only true faith. He felt gratified at the reception, for it was evident from it that the hearts of the congregation were right. It showed that they appreciated the fact that the clergy were the true representatives of Christianity. Love was the great instrument employed by those chosen by our Savior to advance the Gospel, and when Christ selected Peter to preside over the flock he thrice asked him to test his faith. "Dost thou love me?" He answered, "Yea, God thou knowest I do." The Bishop spoke at some length on the responsibilities and powers of the clergy and the duty of the people to support it and concluded as follows: "I felt proud when I knelt down among the other Bishops at the feet of the Holy Father and handed him the book in which was inscribed the names of those who had contributed, and the sum amounted to about $11,000 in gold. He pronounced a heartfelt blessing upon the members of the Pittsburgh Diocese who had so generously contributed to the Holy Cause. I love you my people, because I have seen your devotion and faithfulness in the hour of need.

Yes! I am glad to return to these scenes where I have tried to labor long and faithfully for the sanctification of your souls; I am glad to return to that church in the sanctuary of which I have been appointed by the successor of Peter the Prince of Apostles. I am glad once again to stand at the altar and as a High Priest of God to offer a holy sacrifice to the living and the dead; I am glad to appear again in this pulpit, whence I have so often endeavored to preach the word of life and truth, and to defend the interests and inculcate the principles of Christianity and morality. I love to take my place again in yonder confessional, because by dispensing mercy and forgiveness to others, I myself hope to be forgiven by God, our Father. In a word, I have returned to renew those relations which have been so kindly kept up between you as Catholics of this Diocese and me as your Bishop. I hope these relations may long continue such as they have been, and that by discharging our duties we may meet finally in the house of our Father in Heaven. I thank you, then, for this frank and cordial reception, and will in return impart to you the Episcopal blessing in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Ghost—Amen.

THE VESPER SERVICE.

During the vespral service the Right Rev. Bishop was assisted at the throne by the Very Rev. T. Mullen as Assistant Priest, by the Rev. T. Stebell and Rev. E. F. Garland as Deacons of Honor, and by the Rev. Fathers Holland and Devlin as Deacon and Sub-Deacon; Master of Ceremonies, Very Rev. J. Hickey, assisted by Rev. W. Burke.

The services concluded by the singing of the hymn Te Deum.

THE CHOIR.

The choir chanted several hymns, and from the efficient manner in which they performed their duties merited the encomiums so lavishly bestowed by all who heard them. The solo by Mr. Apfelbaum was especially deserving of mention. The members of the choir are all excellent singers and furnish good vocal music on all occasions, but yesterday they contributed, if possible, more than usual to the interest of the ceremonies.

THE NUMBERS.

It is estimated that between two thousand five hundred and three thousand persons took part in the procession. The demonstration was one of the grandest ever gotten up by the Catholics of this diocese, and was worthy alike of the denomination and the occasion which prompted it.

OAKLAND PARK.—The horse exhibition which has been in progress at this park during the past week, will be continued to-day and to-morrow. The programme for to-day announces a dash of one mile between Lady Elgin, Sleepy John, Jenny Van and Alice, for a purse of one hundred dollars—twenty-five dollars on each quarter. This will be followed by a match between Gipsey and Pilot, for a purse of four hundred dollars. To-morrow a grand pacing match will take place between Grey Eagle, Yankee Sam, Rover and Cold Water Billy for a premium of five hundred dollars. These horses are known as among the fastest pacers in the country, and a large concourse of people will doubtless be present to witness the contest. The track is in splendid condition, and it is not improbable that Dexter's time (2:21¾) may be beaten. Arrangements have been made to accommodate all who may attend with seats from which a full view of the track can be had.

THE CAMPAIGN.

Republican Meetings at Natrona and Tarentum.

Speeches of Maj. A. M. Brown, Hon. P. C. Shannon and Others.

THE MEETING AT NATRONA.

A large and enthusiastic meeting of the Union Republican party was held on Friday evening, at Natrona, an important manufacturing town on the northern bank of the Allegheny river, above Tarentum. The place is noted for its extensive soda works, oil refinery, salt works, &c., and is a thriving and growing place. The meeting was presided over by Mr. Stephen Drury, assisted by the following Vice Presidents: Messrs. W. Potts, F. S. Deckert, A. A. Mitchel, W. H. Rogers, J. McComb, Robert Boyd, Lieut. J. B. Duff and Daniel Yaney. Secretaries—Major Robert Taggart, Daniel Singer, J. W. Deckert and William C. Kearns.

Major A. M. Brown first took the stand and made a forcible speech, having particular reference to the characters of the two candidates for Supreme Judge. He characterized them both as men of intelligence and ability, and on that ground they were equal, but their political record being thoroughly discussed there was observable a marked difference. Judge Williams having been loyal through all the days of the rebellion, whilst the decisions of Judge Sharswood were such as to cripple the powers of the Government and give aid and comfort to the rebels.

The following resolutions, prepared by a committee appointed for that purpose, was unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, At the present critical juncture in the political history of the nation, any lack of sympathy with the party which espoused the principles to the success of which we have declared our devotion, any supineness on the part of individuals, any aid rendered to the party by whom those principles have been bitterly opposed, whether on the grounds of personal feeling or from other cause, creating schisms, would be inimical to the great ends of our party. Therefore, be it

Resolved, As the sense of this meeting, that it is the solemn duty of every loyal voter to devote his energies to secure a triumph for each and every candidate of the Union Republican party, and that on the second Tuesday of October next, at the ballot box, we will ratify this our determination.

Resolved, That the people of this part are thoroughly aroused, and are determined that want of effort on their part shall not be the means of defeat; on the contrary, with renewed vigor they are determined to increase their majority in October next.

Judge Shannon followed in an able address, occupying about one hour and a quarter, and was listened to with marked attention during the whole time. We append a synopsis of his speech.

SPEECH OF HON. P. C. SHANNON.

Fellow-Citizens—Another year, and yet still another contest to preserve the life of the nation! Again the waves are angry and seem about to break upon us. From fancied security, producing sweet dreams of ended strife, we are once more threatened to be swept into the night of the maddened tempest. And how is this? Whence comes it that the political atmosphere is filled with the whisperings, and mutterings, and flashes of an approaching storm? It is almost a waste of time to recapitulate to intelligent and patriotic minds all the well-known and oft-repeated causes. Alas, we need no Old Mortality to freshen the marks or letters on the head-boards of our fallen dead! Their rough graves are too new to require that. The grooves in the hearts of the widows and orphans are not yet healed over. The field of Antietam has just now been dedicated with pomp. Gettysburg has a cemetery in which the young laurels have just been planted. Gettysburg! Oh, may Heaven grant that from the world of loyal spirits above that cemetery, there may now descend a bridge of light to connect us with the glory of their deeds done in the body!

Look back to April, 1861, and count the dark and gloomy days that intervened until Lee's surrender—the days of peril and of death, of doubt and despondency, intermingled with those other days of hope and good-cheer, its brave deeds, and its final triumph. Are those days to be reproduced, as some maliciously threaten, and others nervously imagine? Are such hours to come again—those wild hours that flow with hope and fear? Have we drawn, and then sheathed a useless sword? No, no! Well may your scorn descend upon those who doubt or despond, as well as upon those who wish for such results. Again I say, no. For the victory which the Republic has won, is not like idle ore,

"But iron dug from central gloom,
And heated hot with burning fears—
And dipped in baths of hissing tears,
And battered with the shocks of doom
To shape and use."

What though Andrew Johnson has held the word of promise to the ear, and broke it to the hope that was in us? What though we once trusted and elevated him, and have been deceived? What though he attempts to set up his own arbitrary will against the loyalty of the nation, and places before us his interpretation of the Constitution and laws as the supreme authority of the land? Nay, make himself superior to the combined wisdom which shielded and saved us! What boots it that he has arbitrarily and illegally removed Stanton and has endeavored, with puny and spiteful effort, to disgrace the chivalrous Sheridan and the maimed Sickles? Behold the long and dark catalogue of his derelictions, swelled into such proportions that the heart grows sick, disgusted and indignant. Look at it all in its fearful enormity, and ask yourselves what is the remedy? Patience we have tried and exhausted. Conservatism antiquates, wearies and enfeebles us. A portion of Congress has hesitated and faltered, thus, as it is thought, squandering advantages hard to regain, if not utterly lost. The selfish ambition of certain aspirants for high position, has no doubt secretly contributed to complicate the difficulties that environ us. A great many of our people have been hoping everything from time, ardently wishing for the joyous day when Andrew Johnson's lease of power would terminate.

It was, indeed, a bitter day for the Republic when, as Vice President, he took the oath of office in the Senate Chamber. It was a humiliating day also, that 22d of February, when as President, he made his indecorous, and rude harangue at the steps of the White House; and our hearts sank under a sense of shame when afterwards he went on his tour, "swinging round the circle." Mortifying, however, as these things were, and still are, to our pride and sense of national honor, yet they are mere peccadilloes, when contrasted with his recent, odious plots against the cause of loyalty and republicanism—plots which create feverish anxiety and apprehension, raise the price of gold, disturb the finances, and unsettle the entire business of the country, and which fill all the friends of liberty throughout the world with horror. What does he mean? What is his purpose? It is not merely clear that he has been pursuing an infatuated course, dooming his own name to infamy on the historic page, but it is manifest from his conduct and action that he entertains a studied purpose to do what he can to destroy the fruits and to defeat the results gained in the war just over.

Again let us ask ourselves what is the remedy for these ills which we are bearing? Can it be that there is none? Yes, I answer, we have one pointed out in the Constitution itself.

As he was swinging round the circle last year the Northern States were holding their Congressional elections. The great issue was then determinedly made up. It was this—shall the policy of this man prevail, or shall the new Congress be elected and instructed to carry on the policy of the loyal people? It was a vital and a momentous issue—one against power, patronage, a false Democracy and the quondam leaders of "the lost cause." With solemnity and wonted fidelity the contest was decided in favor of our party and our cause by a popular majority of 400,000, and the people sent into both chambers of the National Legislature enough Senators and Representatives to over-ride any Presidential veto.

Imagine, now, the mental condition of a man, who whilst making public, but hollow, professions of respect for the will of the people, and of confidence in the justice of their decisions, yet finds the people condemning his course, and opposing his arbitrary dictation. And mark you the same people who were steadily following principle, had once, most unfortunately for the country, trusted in his [illegible] high position. The military reconstruction bill of last winter—urged and demanded by the voice of the loyal people when all other reasonable overtures had been spurned, and proved to be correct and approved result of the political contest of last October.

That law seemed at once to give peace to the country. It seemed to be the harbinger of a speedy restoration of all the States to their old relations with the Union, with constitutions purified so as to become truly republican in form of government. What next ensued we all know too well. The true and the real purposes of this Executive officer, long attempted to be concealed, at length began to be disclosed, to the utter astonishment of those who had given him countenance by pursuing what they termed a "conservative course." In the execution of that law began that series of obstructions by the President, which absolutely forced the Senate and Representatives of the people to assemble in extra session, in which it would have been a blessing to the country had they remained ever since. And what have we now? Why unmistakable indications of a still more dangerous attitude on his part.

The President is clothed with two powers—the legislative one of exercising a qualified veto over a bill passed by the two houses of Congress; and the executive one, to wit: to see that the laws made by Congress, whether over his veto, or by his approval be faithfully carried into effect. He is as much bound to uphold a law made notwithstanding his veto, as he is to maintain one with his consent and signature. But what is the fact? The former class of laws he endeavors to ignore, and indirectly to nullify, or to Stanberyize. Not to add more, his recent amnesty proclamation is an instance in point. He should respect the loyal people and their representatives. But he despises both. He should execute, maintain, and uphold the laws. But some of them he evades and thwarts. He picks out such laws, or parts of laws, as suit him; the others he condemns, sneers around, cares not for, and seeks to render inoperative. He proclaims that there is no armed resistance, in the rebel States, to the Constitution and laws. Indeed! Well, how came it so? What brought it about? Did he? No; it was all done during the days of the good and lamented Lincoln, who lived until, in Richmond, he received the benedictions of the emancipated. Yet does he not know that to a certain extent, the spirit of rebellion is as rife there now as it ever was. Subdued but smouldering, it only seeks vent to burst out anew. Union men have been murdered there by hundreds, and for no other reason than that they fought treason and loved their country.

The President turns his face away from the soldiers and citizens, who, during the darkest days of our trials, stood up for the maintenance of the Union, and against the spoliation of our flag. He heeds not their well-known wishes, despises their advice and counsel, spurns their preferences, and overthrows the safeguards erected for their preservation and for that of our common country. His smiles, blandishments and pardons are bestowed upon those who, in the South, were our open enemies, whilst in the North his cabinet advisers are now selected from among the former personal and political friends of the rebel leaders.

Jeremiah S. Black, Fernando Wood, Charles O'Conor, Judge Sharswood, Pendleton, Vallandigham, and all that sort of men are eagerly admitted to his audience. He consults with them and favors their views; and when doing this, he hurls Stanton, Sheridan and Sickles from their places. What faults have these gentlemen committed that they should thus be maltreated? Cannot everybody answer? Yes. Their crime consists in having aided in averting the machinations and the blows of rebels and their sympathizers. Ever true and faithful, ever brave and watchful, ever honest and incorruptible, their very presence became hateful to Andrew Johnson. They were a barrier in his way; they scanned him too closely; it was in the interests of the late rebels to decapitate them, and imitating the old Roman tyrant in his garden, the decree had to go forth, and the heads of the tallest poppies were cut off at a blow.

His satraps and myrmidons give out whispers of approaching revolution, if he be impeached, as he should be by a wronged people. Revolution! Revolution! The soul grows sick, the cheek pales at the thought of another bloody rebellion—for that is the true significance of the dastardly threat. But if in the wondrous ways of Providence another rebellion should come headed by Johnson and his notorious plotters and present backers—let it come. This is all we can say. But if it does come, through this bad man and his villainous allies, then Sherman's march from the mountains to the sea, and through the Carolinas, will have been but as child's play when contrasted with what shall inevitably ensue. If it does come, it will not be through fault of ours. But we will never give up one thing that has been legitimately won by our four years war. State sovereignty, the right of secession and slavery are dead issues—and the Constitution of the United States must be henceforth so interpreted. Education must be free and publicly established. Education is more vital than revenue. Emperors, kings and nobles love revenue, but detest and so far as they can proscribe free education.

As against these diabolical threats of "revolution" we stand unflinchingly. But woe to those who bring it about or aid in it. The bitter lessons of four years of extraordinary clemency to rebels have not been forgotten. In such a cause we will be justified in exercising all powers that God and nature have bestowed upon us.

And yet Andrew Johnson, with all his vengeance to the North and its institutions, and with his secret love for the South and its "lost cause," backed in his machinations by the leaders of the illegitimate Democracy, cannot root out or destroy the principles by which the rebellion was subdued. In New England, among the Puritans, and in Maryland, under Calvert, Lord Baltimore, were nursed those grand principles of Republicanism which burst upon the world in the Declaration of Independence, and which were vindicated by our triumph over slavery and rebellion. Civil liberty is of immortal origin, and cannot die. The United States and its Territories are now dedicated to freedom, to civil and religious liberty, to the political equality of men, and the enemies thereof whilst they may snarl and fight, and may at times gain temporary success, can never succeed in eradicating the principles carried over in the May Flower, the Ark and the Dove. Maryland, at last, is beginning to rival New England in the bold enunciation of the immortal maxim "Freedom to men of all climes, countries and creeds."

Missouri, after desperate struggles, has thrown off forever the accursed shackles; and Louisiana, through war, riot and murder, will soon stand firmly by her side. And so ere long will it be with all the other States. Wrong and cruelty are sure to bring punishment, and so the slave States have found to their bitter cost. Let us tell Andrew Johnson that a rebel who still has the heart, and continues to exhibit the spirit of a rebel, should have no civil or political rights which a loyal man, or patriot, is bound to respect.

Yes—in New England, so much derided and hated by slaveholders and their political auxiliaries—and in Maryland were first found on this Continent, the germs of those immortal principles which gave nerve, and light, and strength, and victory to our noble soldiers and sailors in the recent conflict. Here those principles were born I may say, and here they shall be forever maintained. They will live and flourish—and across the two oceans, and in the far-off Indies, nay over Europe and Asia, and Africa, through the shadowy vista of the coming centuries, they will slowly and gradually spread, until in time the entire globe shall embrace their effulgent power, and join in the anthem of "Freedom, to men of all climes, colors, countries and creeds." This is true Democracy; this is true Republicanism.

REPUBLICAN MEETING AT TARENTUM.

The Republican voters of the northern portion of the county held a grand rally at the Station House, in the borough of Tarentum on Saturday evening. The meeting was a large and enthusiastic one, and was decidedly the best one of the campaign in this county so far. It shows that the Republicans in the northern district of the county are alive to the issue, and that they will poll a rousing majority on election day.

The meeting came to order at half past seven o'clock, by calling George Morrison, Esq., to the chair, and appointing a number of Vice Presidents and Secretaries.

William C. Moreland, Esq., of this city, was introduced and entertained the meeting in a speech for about an hour and a quarter, discussing the general issues to be decided at the coming election, and closing with a deserved tribute to the ability, integrity and honesty of Hon. Henry W. Williams, our candidate for Supreme Judge.

John H. Kerr, Esq., of this city, was next introduced, and before proceeding to address the meeting called for three cheers for our candidate, Judge Williams, and three for the gallant Gen. Phil. Sheridan, who recently graced our city with his presence, which were given with a will. Mr. Kerr then proceeded to address the meeting in a speech of about three-quarters of an hour's duration. He ably discussed the various topics at issue at the present day, and charged the Democracy with being the instigators and cause of the late rebellion, which compelled our young men to give up their lives in sacrifice to our country's flag. The speaker was listened to attentively, and was frequently interrupted with applause.

The chairman next introduced Captain William R. Ford, one of the candidates for Assembly. In answer to a question, he said that he was heartily in favor of a General Railroad Law, and for a restoration of the charter of the Pittsburgh and Connellsville Railroad. He said he was in favor of allowing the Pennsylvania Railroad all the rights and privileges necessary to carry on the road satisfactorily, but he was not in favor of allowing them undue privileges to the exclusion of all others. The speaker then occupied the attention of the meeting for about twenty minutes on the general issues of the day, and at the conclusion of his speech he was greeted with cheers.

The meeting closed with three rousing cheers for Judge Williams, and three for the whole Union ticket.

SIXTH WARD REPUBLICANS.

The Republicans of the Sixth ward will meet to-night at the School House to organize for the campaign.

LAWRENCEVILLE TO-MORROW NIGHT.

To-morrow night a grand Union Republican rally will be held at the corner of Butler and Bellefontaine streets, Lawrenceville. Able speakers will be present, and it is hoped there will be a large turn out.

LABOR MEETING AT BRADDOCK'S.

A meeting of workingmen was held at the borough of Braddock's Fields on Friday evening. James McCurry presided. Speeches were made by J. W. Krepps, Henry McCurry, J. S. Hillman and David Lowry. A resolution was adopted endorsing the action of the Labor Convention.

AQUATIC SPORTS.

The Boat Race on Saturday—Duquesne Crew Victorious—Time 21:45.

The long talked of boat race, between the four oared crews of the Duquesne and R. C. Howard Boat Clubs, came off on the Allegheny river, on Saturday afternoon. It will be remembered that about two months ago these crews rowed over the same course, but the Duquesne lost the race by their stroke oarsman taking cramp. The result being entirely unsatisfactory, another match was effected and the race came off on Saturday, as stated. The purse was five hundred dollars, and the distance rowed three miles, the boats starting from the Suspension Bridge, going up the river a mile and a half to a stake boat, and return. Since the match was made, both crews have been in active training for the contest, and the rowing on Saturday proved that they had improved their time. Shortly after five o'clock both crews made their appearance and were greeted with cheers by the large crowd of spectators, who lined the bridges and shore. The Duquesne crew, consisting of John Fisher, (stroke,) Th. Schofield, August Hollender and Wm. Worthington, rowed in the "O. H. P. Williams," and were dressed in pink shirts and tights. The Howard crew manned the "Augenetta," and consisted of M. Hanna, [illegible] Lang, August Miller and Wm. Hays. They were clad in a complete suit of white. Both crews appeared confident of success. At eighteen minutes past five o'clock the word was given, and the eight oars dipped the water simultaneously. The Duquesne crew gained the lead slightly, and at the Hand Street Bridge were about a length in advance. By a vigorous spurt, however, the Howard gained rapidly, and at the Railroad Bridge the boats were almost even. It was soon noticeable that the Howard were slacking their speed, while their competitors seemed to be inspired with renewed vigor, and were rapidly widening the gap between them. At the stake boat the "O. H. P. Williams" was fully three lengths in advance of the "Augenetta." In turning, it appears, the outrigger of the "Augenetta" caught on the buoy, and some time was consumed in getting it loose. The race could now have been said to be over, as the half-dozen lengths which had separated the boats had now increased to a dozen, and the Duquesne boat reached the starting point in twenty-one minutes and forty-five seconds, leaving the Howard crew at the Hand Street Bridge, who reached home one minute and fifteen seconds later. The winning crew were heartily greeted with cheers as they passed under the Suspension Bridge.

RACE NEXT SATURDAY.

A double scull race will take place on the upper Monongahela course on Saturday afternoon next, between the two oared crews of the Ihmsen Boat Club, of Birmingham. One boat will be manned by L. Eusel and L. Tar, and the other by H. Moore and Isaac Keese. The race will be for a purse of two hundred dollars, distance three miles.

CHALLENGE ACCEPTED.

Brooks Dickson has accepted the challenge of Harry Myers to row a single scull race over the Monongahela course, distance one or two miles, for a purse of fifty dollars or more, and has named Saturday afternoon next for the race.

Court Proceedings.

QUARTER SESSIONS—JUDGE STOWE.

The Court met on Saturday morning, but as the jury had concluded not to sit to hear testimony in the Thompson-Moffitt conspiracy case, Judge Stowe gave notice that the trial would be resumed in the District Court room at ten o'clock Monday morning. Judge Sterrett will sit in the Quarter Sessions this week, and Judge Mellon will take charge of the Common Pleas.

HABEAS CORPUS CASE.

Judges Sterrett and Mellon held Court in the Common Pleas room, and were occupied for a considerable time in hearing testimony in a habeas corpus case, wherein Jacob Grau, of Bloomfield, this county, was compelled to produce in Court the body of Charles Swegert, a lad twelve or thirteen years of age, on the petition of his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Swegert. The history of the case, as developed by the testimony, is as follows: Some years ago Swegert parted from his wife, and it was subsequently reported that he had committed suicide at St. Louis. His wife was accused of drinking to excess, and indulging in other practices incompatible with a proper training of the boy. In regard to this the boy was taken by some friends of the family, and Mr. Victor Schwind was appointed guardian for him by the Court. About a year ago Mr. Schwind indentured the boy to Mr. Jacob Grau, a carpenter residing at Bloomfield. It appears that the boy has been well treated in his new home, and was sent to school all last winter. His mother alleges in her application that she is able and competent to take care of him, and that the proceeding under which he was given in charge of a guardian was had without her knowledge and consent.

Mr. Reardon appeared as counsel in support of the writ, and Mr. Kirkpatrick on behalf of the guardian and the respondent. Mr. Kirkpatrick suggested that the Court could not try the issue as to the legality of the appointment of guardian in a proceeding of this kind. Judge Sterrett concurred in this view, and granted a rule to show cause why the appointment of guardian should not be revoked. The testimony in the case, as well as the admissions of the mother, showed that she had been in the habit of getting drunk frequently. It was not denied that Mr. Grau was a competent person to have possession of the boy, and that he had been regularly apprenticed by his guardian. The Court held the matter under advisement, but will render a decision at an early day.

SENTENCE OF JOSEPH REDGATE.

Judge Sterrett then called for sentence Joseph Redgate, who had been convicted of stealing a shawl, the property of Dr. Robinson, of Lawrenceville. It was in evidence that Redgate had been just recovering from a "spree," when he stepped into Dr. Robinson's house and made off with a new shawl, belonging to one of the females, and valued at twelve dollars. He was caught soon after with the garment concealed under his coat. His intention was to "spout" the shawl at a tavern for whisky. The act was sufficient to have sent him to the penitentiary, but it appearing that he was not in the habit of stealing, and that he had got into this difficulty only through his appetite for liquor, the Court let him off with a jail sentence of thirty days, coupled with the solemn admonition that if he ever came before the Court on a similar charge he would certainly go to the Penitentiary.

COMMON PLEAS—TRIAL LIST.

The following list of cases will be taken up to-day before Judge Mellon:

50. Kennedy vs. Moore.
51. Oliver vs. School Directors Elizabeth Borough.
52. Waite, McAlpine & Co. vs. Forward, Dicks & Co.
54. Coleman vs. McGowan's executors.
55. Braithwait vs. Jones and wife.
56. Clark vs. Pittsburgh Coal Co.
57. McCormick vs. A. Fulton & Son.
58. Mitchell vs. Bennett et al.
61. Ehrgott vs. Dithridge.
62. Stooks vs. T. J. Hester & Co.
63. Hahn vs. Ebner.
64. Brown vs. Rath & Co.
65. Henderson & Andrews vs. John Irwin & Co.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT—JUDGE M'CANDLESS.

In this Court, on Saturday, the Judge entered a decree in the case of the United States against twenty barrels of whisky, &c., owned by Daniel Carns, of Somerset county, "that said twenty barrels of whisky, together with the other property in said libel mentioned, be condemned and forfeited to the United States." The decree is substantially the following:

NOTE—The above decree is made on motion of the United States Attorney, and was required by the strict law of the case. But as no evidence was offered showing or tending to shew direct and intentional fraud on the part of Mr. Carns, and as the United States Attorney on the trial abandoned the allegations of actual fraud, and the jury found that none was committed (although the jury were not before them), the Court deem the case a suitable one for the interposition of the power of remission of forfeiture of the honorable Commissioner of Internal Revenue, on payment of the taxes due on the whisky seized (if not already paid,) and the costs of this proceeding. This recommendation is the more readily made because the respondent appeared to have been misled by the advice of ignorant subordinate officials (the district being without a collector, assessor and general inspector at the time when the acts charged were committed), and because much of the evidence in the case tended to negative the idea of intentional fraud. The District Attorney expresses his concurrence in this recommendation, and for the reasons above set forth.

UNITED STATES CIRCUIT COURT—JUDGE M'CANDLESS.

In this Court, on Saturday, Wm. Bakewell, Esq., Solicitor for complainant, filed a bill in equity, in the case of James Wood, a citizen of Pittsburgh, against F. H. Oliphant and George W. Paull, of Fairchance, Fayette county. This is an action for an alleged infringement of patent, or improvement in the manufacture of nuts from heated bars of iron. It is in evidence that the respondent, Mr. Oliphant, has in operation at his iron works two machines for the manufacture of nuts, which are in many important particulars substantially similar to the nut machine described in the letters patent to Jas. Wood, assignee of Wm. Kenyon.

A similar bill was also filed against the New Castle Manufacturing Company, Lawrence county, for a like infringement. Subpœnas were issued in these cases, returnable the first Monday in November next.

Also, a bill in Equity, in the case of Henry B. Goodyear, Administrator of Nelson Goodyear, deceased, and Samuel A. Duncan vs. William W. Wheaton, of Jackson, Susquehanna county. This is for an alleged infringement of the Vulcanite Rubber patent. A subpœna was issued returnable the first Monday of November next.

TEMPERANCE LECTURES.—Mr. Hugh D. McGaw, of this city, one of the State Lecturers of the Independent Order of Good Templars, delivered a lecture before the order of the I. O. G. T., at Washington, Pa., on Thursday evening last, and also lectured before a public meeting in the Court House, at the same place, on Friday evening.

Sermon to Young Men.

Rev. Herrick Johnston, D. D., the retiring pastor of the Third Presbyterian Church of this city, delivered a Sermon before the Young Men's Christian Association last evening in the First Presbyterian Church, on Wood street. The audience was very large, and numbers were unable to obtain admission to the church. Upon the conclusion of the preparatory exercises, which were conducted by Revs. Drs. Scovil and Jacobus, Dr. Johnston delivered a discourse from the text, "I will make a man more precious than fine gold; even a man than the golden wedge of Ophar." Isaiah xiii. 12. The speaker counselled the young men to be wise in the choice of their companions and associates, and referred at length to the danger, which would be experienced by making an injudicious selection. He also exhorted them to beware of the profligate and the slanderer, saying that "he who could so insult the mother who bore him as to breathe suspicions of women, was one of hell's ambassadors sent to this earth with full credentials." The discourse was an excellent one, and was listened to with marked attention by the large assembly present.

PLANETELLES.—As will be seen by the following, the public are to have an opportunity of seeing Mr. Davis's new inventions, Planetelles: Hon. Wilson McCandless, Hon. Thomas Mellon, Rev. D. R. Kerr, D. D., Rev. D. Elliott, D. D., and others. Gentlemen: As you deem an exhibition of my Planetelles a public benefit, I will cheerfully comply with your request on Tuesday, 24th instant, and each succeeding day during the week. Your obedient servant, J. DAVIS.

ACCIDENT.—Charles Bilbarz, proprietor of a saloon on Penn street, in the Fifth ward, accidentally fell through a trap door going into the cellar, which had been left open, on Friday evening, receiving severe injuries about the breast and legs.

Testimonial from Paris.

We, the undersigned, take pleasure in testifying that we regard the Mason & Hamlin Cabinet Organs, as instruments in which all desirable improvements are to be found. The Automatic Swell especially appears to us a remarkable success, and far superior in its capacity for varying the power of tone to anything which has hitherto been made. We recommend, then, most especially these Cabinet Organs, for their excellent qualities; first, for the rendering of all sacred music, and also as an indispensable auxiliary of the piano-forte in the drawing room.

[Signed] EDOUARD BATISTE, Professor of the Imperial Conservatory of Music, and Organist of the Church of St. Eustache, Paris.

AUGUST DURAND, Organist of the Church of St. Vincent de Paul, and Composer, Paris.

EDOUARD HOCHMELLE, Organist of the Church of St. Phillippe de Roch. of the Chapel of the Senate, etc., Paris.

E. SAINT-SAENS, Composer, and Organist of the Church of the Magdalene, Paris.

The Mason & Hamlin Cabinet Organs, long celebrated in our own country, and now regarded in Europe as the best made in the world, are for sale in this city by Mr. C. C. Mellor, 81 Wood street, the sole agent in this city and vicinity.

OUR CANDIDATE.

Hon. Henry W. Williams.

[From the Pittsburgh Post, June 28.]

WORTHY CANDIDATES.

"The nomination of Henry W. Williams as a candidate for Judge of the Supreme Court, is a good one. He was the best man named before the Republican Convention, and possesses legal and moral qualifications for the responsible position to which he has been nominated. Both parties have now presented their candidates. An important duty has been faithfully discharged by the respective conventions. The campaign may now be conducted without personal aspersions, and decided upon the principles of the two great parties. This is as it should be."

[From the Pittsburgh Post, August 29.]

If the notice of Judge Williams's nomination which appeared in the "Post" at the time, and now kept standing at the head of the Republican papers, is intended as a rebuke for any supposed inconsistency since, it fails in its purpose. We have nothing to take back or modify. Of Judge Williams's private or legal reputation we have nothing but words of praise, and however it may suit some pugnacious and heady politicians, we cannot bring ourselves to view personal assaults as either wise or politic. The Democracy plants itself upon principle and deals with facts, and discusses the public and official acts of candidates.

ON the first page of the COMMERCIAL this morning will be found the farewell sermon of Rev. HERRICK JOHNSON, D. D., pastor of the Third Presbyterian Church. On the third page the readers will find extracts from a sermon on the subject of "The Lost Coin Found," preached yesterday morning by Rev. ALEX. CLARK, pastor of the First Methodist Church.

IT is intimated from Washington that the leading Democrats from Pennsylvania who visited the President last week to demand the removal of a large number of office-holders, and the appointment of more thorough party men, with the view of influencing the election next month, did not succeed equal to their expectations. Mr. JOHNSON was troubled with disgusting doubts, and hesitated to come to the scratch except in some minor appointments.

THE Indian news renders an Indian War highly probable. The savages make wholly unreasonable demands, among other things that the construction of the Central Pacific Railroad shall be stopped. Gen. HANCOCK, at Washington, repeats the opinion that there is no avoiding war except by permitting the savages to have their own way—which, it must be conceded, is a very bad one. Certain tribes, however, are peaceably disposed, and the Peace Commissioners, contrary to present appearances, may yet procure a peaceful solution of the problem.

THE approaching Presidential election in Mexico will prove an event of great importance, for on it depends the question of peace and stability or revolution and turmoil. If JUAREZ consents to be a candidate, he will stand by far the best chance of an election. Otherwise the office will be scrambled and gambled for by rival chiefs, the election of any one of whom would be followed by attempts at revolution and bloody outbreaks. There are districts which are far from being conciliated, and would at any moment revolt should the opportunity present itself. Nevertheless, the country has a better prospect for quiet and prosperity—Mexican prosperity—than it has had within the recollection of most those who read this paragraph.

WE are able to assure the Republicans of Allegheny and Western Pennsylvania that the signs are auspicious. "General Apathy," who has been suspected of having too much to do with our affairs, has been cashiered and dismissed, and General Activity appointed in his place. Under him Union men all over the State are falling into ranks preparatory to moving forward in a solid column on election day. Henceforth, till that day dawns, the time will be devoted to effort for securing a full Union vote. The little display which the Democrats have made of their confidence, has had the timely effect to awaken Union men to this effort. Words of cheer come up to us from nearly every quarter, accompanied by the inquiry—what will old Allegheny do? It is a reasonable inquiry, and to it there should be but one answer—an old fashioned Union majority! Friends, shall it be anything else?

THE President explains that all he has said or done about the postponement of the elections in the South, was to have the Associated Press agent send over the wires the fact that the President was in favor of a uniform day, and that he hoped the District Commanders would postpone the elections so as to insure that object. But so far not one of the commanders has taken the hint, and there is hardly any probability that there will be a postponement. In Virginia and Georgia, the 22d and 29th of October have been designated for the election for delegates to the Constitutional Conventions of these States respectively. The other States will probably elect in October. Whatever may be the result of the October and November elections in the North, reconstruction will proceed without interruption. Notwithstanding the frauds of Mr. JOHNSON, and the endeavors which may result therefrom, the great body of the Southern people, without confidence in his ability or their own to interrupt the work, are weary of delay, and desire only to have it go on to the end in the shortest time possible. The following from the Norfolk Day Book is to the point:

This then is our conclusion. We vote for a Convention, in hope, in trust, in the wisdom of the people of Virginia. They ought to, and we believe they will, extricate us from our present state of military coercion; for they wish deliverance no less than we do. That which is inevitable is useless to postpone. The present terms are before us. Hard as they may be deemed by some, they may be made harder yet by rejection. Convention or no Convention, is the question.

A VERY spirited and richly deserved tribute of indignation, seasoned with contempt, is administered by the Herald to Mr. JOHNSON for his discreditable conduct at Antietam. On the general principle that "faithful are the words of a friend," great fidelity must be awarded to the Herald for this castigation of its recently adopted ward. We wish we could anticipate some efficacy from it in the direction of his improvement. But Mr. JOHNSON'S malady lies beyond the reach of rebuke, or, at least, too deep to be cured by that means. The loaning of himself to mere party purposes, and those bad ones, on such an occasion as Antietam, is proof of his being incurable. Even the Herald gives him up, in despair, as self doomed and sealed to perversions and infamy. Its absurd lugging in of Congress, as shown in its indignation, does not weaken or soften its well directed blows upon Mr. JOHNSON, even if intended to do so, for Congress, every one knows, had nothing to do with the case. Mr. JOHNSON was the principal figure in the Antietam graveyard exhibition of partisan bitterness and bad manners. And the Herald's sharp stick pierces him and none besides. And to that extent we concur, as every patriot will, in the aspiration for an occupant of the high position, as soon as possible, who is a gentleman and a statesman.

THE British press is almost unanimous and altogether emphatic in expressing the opinion that Mr. SEWARD does not wish to come to an understanding in regard to our claims growing out of the depredations of the Anglo-rebel cruisers, but is protracting the discussion for ulterior purposes. The claim—apparently an after thought—put in by the Secretary concerning "the premature concession of belligerent rights to the Confederates as a grievance for which the British Government owes reparation to the United States," has given rise to this. While this country will be inclined to be gratified that Mr. SEWARD has made this point, there is no disputing that its force is a good deal weakened by the lateness of the hour when he has done it. Had it formed a conspicuous part of the original claim, and been discussed before the offer for arbitration was virtually accepted by England, Mr. SEWARD would not have been subjected to the charge of attempting to bring in new matter simply to protract the settlement, for objects which are not avowed. The concession by England of belligerent rights to the rebels placed the rebellion on its feet, and we think our people would be glad to see Mr. SEWARD press the point upon the English Government till it acknowledges the responsibility it incurred by the act.

A WEEK FOR WORK.

With Republicans, this should be a week of practical work. The advices that have come to hand from the State at large the last few days are encouraging. Our friends have gone to work in earnest. The opposition have exulted too soon and too loudly. They have aroused the Republicans who have only to get their vote out to secure the victory. To this end, then, let every man employ himself. To this end also let the meetings be held and the efforts of the committees put forth. The duty of those whose sympathies during the war were with the Government is as clear as at any time during the last five years. An unfaithful President and the unreconstructed rebels pause in hopefulness for the result in Pennsylvania. They wait as LEE paused when sympathizing Democrats organized riot and dissension in the North. They failed then, and if the Republicans but half do their duty they will fail now.

GOOD MONEY.

It does not require a very long stretch of memory to recall times when bank failures were almost daily events. But the failure of a national bank is so rare an occurrence that it excites surprise and people regard it as a strange phenomenon. How does this difference arise? It is simply because the national system is so much safer and better than any heretofore in use. The New York Safety-Fund system came nearer to it in safety and resembled it more in character than any other. But although well adapted to single States, it could not be made national.

One thing to be desired in a bank note, as in a private obligation, is the assurance that it will be paid, or, in other words, that the holder of it will not lose its value, in case the bank becomes insolvent. This is effected in the National system, by deposits held by the government to an amount ten per cent. more than the entire circulation. Besides this, the affairs of the banks are under close and constant supervision by government agencies. There is no likelihood of failures being numerous, and when, at rare intervals they occur, there is no danger of the bill holders suffering loss. Besides safety, other advantages to individuals are furnished by this system, especially in making payments at distant points, the bills of all national banks being equally good in all parts of the country. To the government the system is of great use, in affording a market for hundreds of millions of its bonds and notes, and in bringing in a tax of over eight millions per year.

The proof of the institution is the working of it. Of the sixteen hundred banks, probably not twenty have failed in the three years of their operation, and nobody in the general public has lost a dollar by holding the bills. The loss, whether resulting from fraud, mismanagement or misfortune, has fallen on the stockholders alone. In view of these facts the people are contented with the currency as it is, and deprecate any tampering with it by politicians. The system works well.

RARE INSTANCES.—A Democrat who does not want an office has been found in John F. Allen, the Democratic nominee for Auditor of Cambria county, who declines on the ground that he will be engaged in teaching school this winter which would prevent his attending the meeting of the Board of Auditors.

Samuel Pippitt, nominated on the Republican ticket of Montgomery county, for Sheriff, declined to run, on the ground "that he would probably be elected, and that it would be inconvenient for him to serve." Gen. Wm. J. Bolton, of Norristown, was thereupon nominated in his place. It is said that the Republicans can elect the Sheriff, on account of the unpopularity of the Democratic nominee.

THE price paid by Bonner for the horse Dexter is thirty-three thousand dollars. The animal—that is Dexter—reached New York on Friday last and was delivered to his new owner the next day, when Mr. Bonner drove him for the first time on Harlem lane, and also on the private park near Macomb's Dam. One of the directors of the park relates that as soon as the horse made his appearance in front of the club house all the gentlemen present took off their hats.

THE Bishops of the Anglican Church are in session at Lambeth Place, London. Many American Bishops are present at the meeting. A form of prayer for this convention will be generally used in all of our American churches during the important deliberations of this great council. The Episcopal Church in the country feel a great interest in the mother church of England, and fervent prayers will arise from many an altar in this country for this convention of Bishops at London.

PERSONAL.

—Maurice Strakosch writes that America will go wild over the beauties of "Romeo and Juliet," in which Patti has won increased distinction.

—Mr. Dickens is complaining—almost raving—about the robbery which American publishers have committed by publishing his books. He says: "I know of one fellow who made five or six thousand pounds out of my American Notes and Chuzzlewit, and never gave me a penny nor a compliment, but returned me a letter of remonstrance that I had misportrayed his countrymen. After all," says Mr. Dickens, "I have had no reason, no encouragement to be enthusiastic for the United States." One would suppose from this that Mr. Dickens had never received a cent from this country, when the fact is a single American publisher has paid this "Boz" fifteen thousand gold dollars within ten years for his works published in America. If Mr. Dickens keeps on he will succeed in dispelling no small part of the good feeling with which the people of this country are disposed to receive him.

—If one wants to know how a dancing girl can be described, let him read what one of the European critics says of Miss Guiseppina Morlecchi, the principal star at Banvard's new Opera House, New York. He tells that when whirled away in the excitement of the dance she seems a spirit rather than a woman. Her feet appear scarcely to touch the floor, and she glides so rapidly through continual transformations that the eye follows her in vain to catch one complete picture of her superb loveliness.

—On Thursday evening, the 12th inst., the tragic drama of "The Apostate" was acted at the Holliday street Theater, Baltimore, Mr. Booth personating Pescara. Towards the close of the play, as most theater-goers will remember, Hemaya rushes upon Pescara, armed with a dagger, and dispatches him—to the great relief of everybody. On this occasion, the representative of Hemaya, being over-zealous and very awkward, inflicted two severe cuts in Mr. Booth's right hand. The wounds were serious and painful; nevertheless, Mr. Booth played the next night, as Benedict, wearing his arm in a sling. On the night following, Saturday, he again played, assuming the arduous and exciting character of Richard III., and fighting the fatal combat with his left hand. His great exertions, however, so irritated and inflammed his wound that his physician wisely insisted that he should stop playing and take immediate rest.

— The Lawrence Journal has "no hesitation in saying" that the speech of Mrs. Stanton, delivered in that city, on female suffrage, "as a specimen of classic eloquence, fine oratory and eloquent diction," was "the finest speech ever delivered in the city by man or woman." And it says this, remembering that Mr. Seward, in his palmiest days, General Lane, the best of all Western speakers, and Theodore Tilton, have all spoken there. Let Kansas be regenerated, say we.

—General Hays, the Republican candidate for Governor in Ohio, witnessed the latter portion of Sheridan's famous ride to Winchester. Gen. Hays had his horse killed in the battle, and was pretty badly hurt himself, and efforts were being made, as he lay stunned upon the ground, to revive him with whisky, and other delicacies; but he says there was no restorative like the hopeful shout of the boys, "Sheridan is coming!" That is the mere prose of it.

—A New York letter says: "Ristori has ceased to be the winning card she was when among us before—judging by the comparatively meagre house which greeted her re-entree at the French Theater last evening."

—The notorious "Duke" Gwin has turned up as a candidate for the United States Senatorship from California.

—Commodore Vanderbilt has a rival in the person of James Guthrie, of Louisville. That gentleman has been for some time almost the exclusive owner of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad, and now he has so manipulated as to possess himself of the Memphis & Ohio Railroad.

GENERAL INTELLIGENCE.

It is an ascertained fact that, contrary to the popular impression, England is a much better market for books than the United States. Not only light literature, but standard works find more and readier purchasers there than they do in this country. The London Athenæum of a late date said that the book sellers of Manchester alone had subscribed for 670 copies of the forthcoming edition of Baines' History of Lancashire, an expensive work, which is to be sold at three and a half to five guineas a copy.

Aluminium bronze, composed of one part aluminium and nine parts copper, is now used, instead of steel, in mechanisms exposed to much wear and tear. In punching the small holes in postage stamps in France the perforated plate through which the needles descend was, when made of steel, worn out in one day, but when made of aluminium bronze it has been found to last fifteen hundred days.

The Covington and Cincinnati Ferry Company have been mulcted in $4,000 damages in a suit brought by F. W. DeLang for damages received a year ago while crossing the river.

The fall racing meeting over the Buckeye Course, near Carthage, will commence to-day, and continue for a week. Some of the finest running horses in America have been entered, and fine sport is anticipated. The great event of the week will come off this afternoon, it being a race for the Burnet House stake of $1,500, three mile heats, for all ages.

The Canadians are finding that their plan of having several days for an election works badly, as it encourages bribery and all kinds of tampering with voters. They are anxious to adopt the American system of having but a single day's poll.

The New York Times, on September 18th, celebrated the beginning of the seventeenth year of its existence, which we trust will be a period of even greater prosperity than the years that have gone by. The New York Herald announces that during the past twelve or fourteen years it has spent from $400,000 to $500,000 for special telegraphic dispatches, and that during the year preceding July 27th last, it expended $50,000 in gold for special dispatches from Europe over the cable.

Charles H. Wallace, of Portsmouth, New Hampshire, caught off Portsmouth 2,525 pounds of fish (mostly cod) with a hand line, in one night last week; pretty good fishing for one night.

Many of the principal merchants and business men of New York, it is stated, are getting tired of what they call the "base-ball nuisance," involving, as it does, the frequent absence of clerks and employees, to the serious injury of business, especially at this season of the year, when their services are most required.

Every steamer from the other side now brings back home many truant American families who have been staying in Paris all summer.

The section providing that no State debt shall hereafter be contracted except under authority of a law especially designating the debt proposed, has been adopted in the New York Convention. A resolution to permanently locate the capital at Albany, and prohibiting the erection of a new capitol within ten years, provoked active discussion. A proposition to remove the capital to New York was defeated.

It is officially announced, through the Christian Advocate, that the centenary contributions of the Methodist Episcopal Church, so far reported, exceed $4,000,000, and it is estimated that when the Western conferences are heard from the aggregate will probably reach $6,500,000.

OFFICE OF THE PACIFIC AND ATLANTIC TELEGRAPH COMPANY OF THE UNITED STATES, September 19, 1867.

TO THE CITIZENS OF PITTSBURGH:

The Board of Officers of the Pacific and Atlantic Telegraph Company of the United States have great pleasure in announcing the opening of their lines to Cincinnati and Louisville.

In accordance with the equity which they believe should prevail between this corporation and the public in all charges for the transmission of messages over the wires of this company, they have ordered a reduction of rates from those heretofore customary between Cincinnati, Pittsburgh and intermediate points, and have also directed a reduction to be made in the rate to New York.

The consistency with which this company have endeavored to serve the public, not only by a prompt transmission of messages, but by endeavoring to reduce the cost of telegraphing entitles them to once more request from this community a continuation of that patronage which has so far cheered the Board of officers in their endeavors to establish a permanent independent telegraph line, which, while profitable to the stockholders, from the good will of the public, should be equally remunerative to the public from a steady cheapening of the cost for the transmission of messages. [TH]E LOST COIN FOUND.

[...]s from a Sermon Delivered on [...]th Morning, September 22, by [...]nder Clark, Pastor of the First [...]dist Church, Fifth street, from [...]h and 9th Verses of the Fifteenth [...]er of St. Luke.

[...]ree parables in this fifteenth chapter of [...]'s gospel,—of the lost sheep, the lost [...] the lost son—have peculiar significance [...]t that they were addressed to the masses [...]he circle of discipleship. A painting, [...]ty, must have a background of shadow. [...]owling and scolding of the scribes and [...]s because Jesus was friendly with Gen[...]ers, only the more clearly displayed [...]t spirit of his life. And yet this glo[...]ature of the gospel has always been re[...]o men who profess Christ and practice [...]. It is hard for a proud heart to hum[...]lf down to an object of that mission [...]eeks and saves the lost. The Saviour [...] for the lowest fallen of the race; but [...]onious men interpose, and say, "Now, [...]t us suggest that sinners to be saved, [...]e respectable, to begin with. We must [...]oo familiar with those miserable fellows [...]!"

[...]harisees were indignant because publi[...]d sinners were allowed the means of [...] encouraged to hope, and pointed to [...]. They thought the Savior lacked dig[...] talking with common people. They [...]ot openly criticise the propriety of his [...]g to them; but when it came to eating [...]em, their wrath ran over in words of [...] and abuse. And to this day the church [...]mbers in it striving to accommodate [...]hristianity to caste and sect and social [...]dings. They shudder at the idea of [...] hovels, prisons, hospitals and infirma[...]th hands' full and hearts' full of the [...]alities of the Gospel. They are shocked [...]heir minister mingle with gamblers, and [...]rds, and blasphemers, because their own [...]f propriety never permits such a dis[...]l familiarity; and if a preacher of their [...]nation should break bread at the sacra[...] board of another sect, they suspect him [...]sy in a moment. [...]ll these fastidious notions the Gospel [...]ns, sending its blessed influences far [...]le and deep to the lowly and the lost.

[...] parable of the lost coin, at first thought, [...]seem about the same thing as that of the [...]eep. Yet there is a difference. There is [...]itology or phrasely repetition in the [...] discourses. His themes are adapted to [...]es and to living men. So each parable [...] but a new standpoint from which the [...]ruth is seen at another front. Truth [...]ave varied forms of revelation, for the [...]tions of men are as widely different as [...]cupations and habits. And this is alone [...]at reason why nothing narrower than [...]ole broad Bible should be considered a [...]ed for human conduct. [...]n General Sheridan was expected at the [...] Depot on Thursday evening last, and the [...]were pressing round to see him as the [...]eached the platform, the eager people [...] all gaze at the same car, or peer through [...]kness into the same car-window. They [...]ot certain at which particular window he [...] appear; so they gazed into all within the [...]ange. But when he did appear he was [...]ized, not by the window, but through it [...]yond it and independent of it. Some of [...]ctators may have first seen him through [...]ndow, and some through another,—some [...]ne side of the car and some from another. [...]s the same Sheridan, however, whether [...]eared at one window or at another, and [...]ne Sheridan whether he appeared at all; [...] has a persistent loyalty that even Presi[...] policy cannot tarnish or turn. [...] matter when or from what standpoint [...] seen—abstract or incarnated—it is one [...]e same, and that is what makes it invinci[...]. [...]e might be a thousand photographs of [...]urgh, all quite distinct and different, and [...]h one perfectly accurate. The pictures [...] be unlike because the artist moved his [...] for every impression. But let him fix [...]mera in one place, and multiply photo[...] from that one standpoint and all will be [...]. The passing stranger gets one view of [...]y from the cars, another from the steam[...] and another from the stage on the turn[...] But show him a picture of Pittsburgh [...]y sunlight from Mt. Washington, and [...] swear the artist never saw the place. [...] say that, and believing that, will not [...] the s[...]logize for its unrecognized [...]graph, [...] the circumstance of the [...]er's mistake [...]ove a single brick or dis[...] a single tile [...] material of the city. [...]urgh doesn't feel obliged to be river[...] all round to prevent strangers from [...]t it an [...]d city, and saying it is like [...] York—or that have a Mt. Washington on [...] side merely that visitors may not report [...]airie village. [...] looking at Scripture Truth. An ultra [...]an who keeps near the level of the water, [...] apt, in the fog and mist, to see some [...]l doctrine so close and large that other [...]nes, in other ranges, equally important, [...] beautiful and blessed, may be more or [...]scured. [...]ther ecclesiastic, high up among the dig[...] church-spires and third ordinations, [...]so far overlook and despise the whole [...]of dissenters, as to see Truth only in gilt [...]rituals, and recognize preachers only in [...]ad-touched successors of St. Peter. And [...]en these extreme standpoints, there may [...]housand intermediate views and as many [...]ponding impressions. [...]tranger, viewing this city from the river in [...]boating times, would guess, from his point [...]ervation, that our people were generally [...]builders, coal-dealers, raftsmen, commis[...]merchants and storage agents, and he [...] wonder why we didn't have schools, [...], churches and colleges. The stranger, [...]ng the city, say from the head of Fifth [...], would conclude that our people were [...]y of a religious and quarrelsome character [...]eing adjacent churches by the half dozen [...]senting as many sects as churches, and [...]rs' offices filling up the rows between! [...]ne would be surprised that we had no com[...] or manufactories. And thus a new im[...]on would correspond with every new po[...] of view, in looking at this or any other [...] or at any other worthy object whatsoever. [...] get a fair view of a truth—a doctrine—we [...] see it from every side, and mark its prom[...] features and all its relative associations. [...]sus taught. He came to liberalize men's [...]s as well as to save their souls. And he [...]e to reach all classes of men. The para[...]f the lost sheep would strike the shepherds [...]country folks in his audience with peculiar [...]. But to city traders, market people and [...]hants who handled pieces of silver coin, [...]who, perhaps, like city folks generally, [...]l not tell the difference between a sheep [...] goat—there must be a familiar illustration [...]ake the point. The thought and its mean[...]are the same, but it is presented from a [...]dpoint to suit the persons designed to be [...]essed. This kind of preaching, by fastid[...] modern critics, would be called sensa[...] and out of the homiletic order of things. [...] know it was said of Jesus that "no man [...] spoke like this man." His subjects were [...]as took hold of men's hearts and minds, [...]his style simple and plain and beautiful [...] every day pictures of the people as he saw [...]. [...]w, all the congregation who heard Jesus [...]oursing about the lost condition of the sin[...] would be made to feel and to inquire.

* * * * * * *

[...]ere the fact of immediate search for the lost [...], and the manner, "with a lighted candle," [...] illustrated. How the plan for man's re[...]ption was formed in Eden—how the light [...] kindled and increased through long years, [...]l the Savior came, &c.]

[Bl]essed be God! What a light he brings in [...] search for souls that are lost! To us the [...]ning has come. Higher yet the sun ascends, [...] deeper down shall penetrate his healing [...]ns. The sunlight of the Gospel is shining [...]r in the world's wilderness to-day, than [...]ely to gild the golden crosses of cathedral [...]es, and to crimson, through casements of [...]ble, the velvet of aristocratic parlors, and [...]azzle from the shoulders of epauletted civil[...]. The light has broken upon the cotton [...]s, and glorifies the hearth of the freedman's [...]n home. Hope blooms in dusky bosoms [...]ter than the snowy harvests of the broad [...]tations. The candle of the Lord has melted [...] fetters from four millions of persecuted [...]ple. And who can extinguish the rising [...]e? Who can stop the pendulum of the sun? [...]bless God for the light breaking upon sha[...] faces and sorrowful breasts! The high [...] is coming. Now, the rays beam aslant [...]horizon, but soon the deepest valley that [...]r held a shadow shall be illuminated in the [...]y light of God. [...]he church is the candlestick, but the light [...]God's. [B]ut the woman swept the house. No doubt [...] made some noise, raised a dust, and played [...]voc on cobwebs. There must have been in[...]rable excitement and confusion among the [...]s and insects as if earthquakes and destruc[...]n had come upon them unawares. But the [...]rcher swept away and away, regardless of [...]y peace or amnesty propositions by the [...]chtened dwellers in the dark. Her business [...]s to find the lost coin, not to consult the [...]nfort of intruding conspirators. The prem[...]s were her own. She had the right to sweep [...]d search. They might buzz discordant un[...]onstitutionality, but she would swing her [...]om, nevertheless. She swept away, agitat[...] and overturning, until the lost coin was [...]nd and placed in company with its silver as[...]ciates—a little blurred by the dark and dust to [...]e—but pure and precious as any of them. [...]So in Christianity. Its teaching is most em[...]atically, "First pure, then peaceable." Our [...]aster says: "I am not come to send peace on [...]rth, but a sword." If there are oppositions [...]fore the Gospel, especially if in "high places," [...]will draw a sword and cut its way to the [...]own-trodden object lost in the institutions of [...]mmon. Men may pile up barriers against [...]e Gospel, but it will beat them to powder. [...]e world may marshal its confederate armies [...] oppose or divert its forward march as it comes [...]eking to save the lost; but bugled armies are [...] more than buzzing insects before the broom [...] the Lord. If political spiders weave cob[...]s of wrong across a nation, and call them [...] divine institutions," when you talk about them [...]nd "politics," if you preach about them—they [...]ll be scattered right and left before the [...]mighty arm. [...]Peace, yes, peace for all—peace for the out[...]st, peace for the poor, peace for the unfortu[...]te, will be the result of the Gospel power; but [...] its aggressions and progressions it goes pan[...]plied to conquer a peace for all the world. [...]Peace on earth"—all over the earth—peace for [...]very creature, is the key-note of the Gospel of [...]hrist. It comes with a hand of muscle and [...] arm of Omnipotence to undo heavy burdens, [...] open prison doors to them that are bound, to [...]reak every yoke, and to set the captive free. [...] comes to seek and save the lost. It first seeks men's bodies, and then blesses their souls. It comes to make a nation's slaves the sons of God! And now, in these times of reconstruction, when human bonds have been sundered by the powers of the Gospel, it has no apologies to offer unrepentant oppressors, but as ever, demands that mutual rights and equal brotherhood shall everywhere prevail.

The lost coin in the house of the American Republic was stamped with the image of God. Miserable human insects had been piling dust upon it and weaving nets around it, to hide it as their own forever. But the Almighty missed the one piece out of ten. And he came sweeping to find it, to burnish it anew, for his own image had been dishonored. Heaven's credit had been questioned. The gold of God was held at a discount, while the gold of men was held at a premium. He came with a candle of lightning and a broom of war. He had the right to come to any corner of his own premises. He came to seek and save that piece of humanity which was lost. He came to restore it to a par currency on the earth. He came to show angels and men that what stands fair in heaven shall be honored in the world. And he is finding the lost. The day of rejoicing is at hand. The neighbors—(who is the neighbor now?)—the neighbors shall be called together and rejoice over the complete restoration of that which was lost. The angels shall join the jubilee, and all true souls in heaven and on earth will sing and exult together that the Gospel finds the poor, and redeems the outcast, and blesses the world.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.—To Mothers.—Thousands of lovely females, in the Spring-time of woman-hood, have been rescued from an untimely grave by the agency of these medicines. When the sprightliness of the romp is changed to apathy and internal suffering, and the glow of health to the sallow hue of cankering disease it is a crisis which requires the maternal attention and solicitude, and for which the pills will be found an efficient remedy. They are equally efficacious in the autumn or turn of life—the most critical period of woman's existance. Sold by all Druggists.

HOFF'S MALT EXTRACT IN AMERICA.—This Celebrated Health Beverage, having been lately introduced into our country, sustains, by its increasing consumption, its great European reputation. We advise all sick as well as healthy to try it, as it is really the best tonic, as the report made by the special committee of three to the New York Academy of Medicine states, and is proved by the many diplomas and medals bestowed on it in Europe. (New York Express.) To Mr. Hoff, 542 Broadway, New York: (Extracts of Letters:) Mr. Wm. Moller, 20 West 10th street, New York, cured of dyspepsia. Mr. R. B. Lewis, 4 Beekman street, of sore throat. Mrs. Amand Forsdorf, 149 Wooster street, of weakness of the stomach. Mr. Ph. Bender, New Haven, of consumption. Try it and you will be satisfied. It gives strength to the weakest, appetite to the convalescent, sleep to the invalid, and hope and health and joy to the sick. "My appetite returns since I am using your Extract of Malt," writes Mr. John Zettler, of New York, No. 168 East 12th street.

"If my daughter, who suffered from consumption, misses (your) Hoff's Malt Extract but one day, there is a relapse of her old complaint and a return of her physical weakness." (Extract of Th. Hartford's letter, Home Journal Office, New York.) Sold by Druggists and Grocers. FR. SPONHOLZ, Sole Agent, at Graff & Reiter's, 215 Liberty street. Also for sale by C. F. BRICK MACHINE,
MANUFACTURED BY THE
PITTSBURGH BRICK MACHINE
AND
BRICK MANUFACTURING CO.

This Machine takes the clay direct from the bank (without the preparation, by soaking, necessary for "soft mud" machines), and tempers it thoroughly, pressing, in steel moulds, brick stiff enough to be packed up eight high in the yard as made. For cutting with the trowel, bearing hard usage, and making a strong, true wall, there are no better brick known. The cost of making them by this machine is from 95 cents to $1 10 per 1,000, according to the rates of wages. This we guarantee. The machine is built entirely of iron and steel; and in the best style for strength and permanent use in working clay. Apply for circulars, giving full information, at the office,

CITY MATTERS.

FOUL CELLARS.—The attention of the Board of Health is called to the condition of some of the cellars on Market street, between the Diamond and Fourth street. The smells that emenate from those places is positively shocking and have been so since the warm weather set in. Prompt attention to this will receive the thanks of all who have business on Market street.

DEATH OF AN OLD CITIZEN.—Victor Scriba, Esq., an old and respected German citizen of Allegheny, died at his residence on Troy Hill, on Friday last. The deceased was formerly connected with the German press of this city, but latterly acted as Justice of the Peace in Reserve township, which position he held at the time of his death.

FIRE IN ALLEGHENY.—On Saturday morning about one o'clock, a fire broke out on the roof of Hamilton & Ross's oil mill, on Middle alley, near the Diamond, Allegheny, but was extinguished before the arrival of the firemen. The mill is being run both night and day, and it is supposed that the fire was occasioned by a spark from the smoke stack falling upon the roof. Fifty thousand bushels of flaxseed, besides a large quantity of oil, were stored in the building, and as this fact was known in the neighborhood great excitement prevailed, but fortunately no serious results occurred. Adam Milby, a private watchman, was burned severely on the hand while endavoring to extinguish the flames.

An alarm of fire was given last evening from box 13, corner of Bidwell street and Western avenue, Fifth ward, Allegheny. The department was soon on the ground, when it was ascertained that the alarm was false.

The Vulcanite Patent Suits.

Our readers will remember the suits instituted here as well as in other cities, by the owners of the well known Goodyear India Rubber Patents, against several eminent dentists, for infringement of their patents by the use of hard rubber in making plates for setting teeth. The parties representing the Goodyear interests have pushed their suits along vigorously, and are following up those who are neglecting or refusing to settle, with a good degree of diligence. The case in New York city, which has been stoutly defended by the profession, was tried some months since on final hearing before his honor Justice Nelson, of the United States Supreme Court. The Judge last week rendered a decision, fully sustaining the validity of the patents in question, granting a perpetual injunction against the defendant, a dentist, and ordering an account to be rendered of the amount of vulcanite or hard rubber used by him heretofore, in infringement of the Goodyear patents. This case will probably be a settlement of the cases pending before Judge McCandless, of which we believe there are three or four. We notice on the record that a new bill was filed in Clerk Sproul's office on Saturday last against Dr. Wheaton, of Susquehanna county. The dentists in our immediate vicinity, have generally settled, and are operating under licenses from the owners of the patents.

Dry Goods in Allegheny.

Among the many beautiful and spacious establishments in the two cities, devoted to the sale of dry goods, none ranks higher in the community than Messrs. Thompson & Groetzinger's, corner of Federal and Water streets, one square South of the Diamond, Allegheny. The interior arrangements of the building are complete, and an air of elegance and luxury prevails, which creates a very easy feeling in the mind of the visitor. Nor is this happy impression removed by an inspection of the numerous articles displayed for sale. The firm has already received their fall stock, which embraces all the latest styles and novelties in dress goods, French poplins, plain and fancy silks, silk plaids, etc., together with full line of seasonable goods. The quality of this stock is unexcelled, and ladies desirous of replenishing their wardrobes should bear this fact in mind. The cloak department is also well supplied, the garments being purchased in the Eastern cities by a member of the firm, who is thoroughly acquainted with the wants and tastes of their customers. We noticed, during a recent visit, an elegant velvet cloak, beautifully trimmed, (the price being one hundred dollars,) which will doubtless soon be displayed to advantage on the person of some Allegheny belle. Shawls, of every conceivable color, texture and style, can also be found in this department. The basement of the building, which is devoted to the purpose of a carpet room, is well supplied with every article in that line, and housekeepers will find that the prices are in keeping with the times. Citizens and strangers should call upon Messrs. Thompson & Groetzinger before making their fall purchases.

THE OFFICE of the State Agricultural Society will remain at 10 St. Clair street until Tuesday morning, where entries can be made and life certificates obtained. The office will remain open Monday evening until twelve o'clock.

EVENING CLASSES.—The regular evening sessions of the Iron City College, corner of Penn and St. Clair streets, will be resumed on Monday, September 30th. By commencing early students can complete a full course during the fall and winter by attending evenings only.

SHALL THE CHILDREN of the Soldiers and Sailors who gave their lives for the preservation of the Union be provided with homes, and receive a good education! This is a question which will admit of but one answer—in the affirmative. It only remains, therefore, for us to point out the best mode in which it can be done. A careful examination has satisfied us, and will satisfy the public, that the projectors of the Riverside Institute, located in the village of Riverside, New Jersey, on the Delaware, have devised the most feasible method. Acting under the charter of the Washington Library company of Philadelphia, incorporated by the State of Pennsylvania, they are offering stock at the low rate of one dollar per share, and will give to each subscriber a beautiful and valuable steel engraving, worth at retail more than the price of the stock, and as an additional inducement will distribute among the stockholders presents valued at $300,000. Who can refuse to do a patriotic and benevolent action on these terms? Let every lover of his country record his name. Read advertisement.

COUNTRY AND EASTERN BLANKETS—Just opened. Bates & Bell.

BURGLAR PROOF LOCKS will be exhibited at the State Fair.

CALL at the store of the American Tea Company, in the Pittsburgh Fruit House, No. 2 St. Clair street, for a copy of their family magazine, given gratis to all. It contains valuable information for all tea buyers and drinkers.

Second Day's Announcement of REMARKABLE CURES.

This entire column is devoted to the names and nature of the diseases of a few of the many thousand of cases of chronic and obstinate diseases of the Eye, Ear, Head, Throat and organs of the Chest, that have been cured by Dr. Aborn, of No. 134 Smithfield street, many of which had resisted the best of medical skill previous to applying to him, but under his peculiar treatment they have been restored in an incredible short space of time, and many of which seem to have been almost miraculous.

The Gazette justly says:

High Testimonials.

Seldom in the history of medical science hereabouts have so many marvelous cures been effected, as have marked the professional career of Dr. E. S. Aborn, the skillful physician and surgeon, whose office is located at No. 134 Smithfield street. His wonderful success in the treatment of diseases can only be attributable to his high knowledge of the human body and the ills to which it is heir. Knowing these things thoroughly, he makes direct war on the cause of his patient's complaint, and does not trifle away the time in which a cure should be effected, in searching out the disease. But we wander from our purpose, as we merely intended to give prominence to the following certificates.

A Blind Girl Made to See.

Miss Shuck, who resides on Mount Washington, was stone blind when she applied to Dr. E. S. Aborn, 134 Smithfield street, a few weeks ago. To-day her sight is completely restored.

Disease of the Chest Cured,

PITTSBURGH, September 17, 1867.

DR. E. S. ABORN, No. 134 Smithfield street—Dear Sir:—Being confined to office work for a series of years, I found leaning over the desk seriously affected my chest, causing sleepless nights, cold sweats, followed by shooting pains. Through your atomization process of reaching the organs of the chest, I have been so much relieved as to lead me in justice to you to send my testimony to its efficacy.

Respectfully yours,
M. G. CURRY,
Bookkeeper at McFarland & Collins' Carpet Store, No. 71 and 73 Fifth street.

A Man 74 Years of Age Made to Hear in Four Days.

I certify that I had been afflicted with a deafness and a constant disagreeable buzzing noise and sounds in my ear. When I applied to Dr. Aborn last Saturday I was so deaf that I could not hear a watch tick. After using his treatment for four days I find that I am relieved of noises and sounds, and can hear the ticking of a watch: I am seventy-four years of age.

JAMES SMITH,
Officer of the Court.

Another Remarkable and Speedy Recovery.

The following additional testimony to the efficacy of Dr. Aborn's treatment has been handed us for publication:

I have been afflicted with an affection of the throat and chest and pain in the side, accompanied by a constant cough, for eighteen months. My friends believed that I had the consumption, and acting upon the advice of one of them I applied to Dr. Aborn three weeks ago, and placed myself under his care. I gradually grew better, and am to-day quite restored to health and vigor. The cure has been a remarkable one, and I take pleasure in recommending other sufferers to call at once upon Dr. Aborn.

A Deaf Man Recovers His Hearing in Five Minutes Time Under the Skillful Treatment of Dr. Aborn.

After suffering from deafness for upwards of five years without any relief, it gives me great pleasure to give publicity to the following fact: I applied to Dr. Aborn, at No. 134 Smithfield street, and in five minutes time he restored my hearing. The sudden restoration of my hearing causes me to feel as though I had been transported to another world. Persons afflicted as I have been should lose no time in calling on the Doctor. He is a gentleman of few words, but his successful treatment speaks louder than human tongue.

Hearing Restored After Six Years Deafness.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., August 23, 1867.

DR. E. S. ABORN.—Dear Sir: For upwards of six years prior to placing myself under your treatment (Saturday, August 17th) I was a great sufferer from the pain and inconvenience arising from deafness. Before leaving London for the United States, I had been treated by distinguished ear surgeons whose skill and experience did not avail in my case. Learning from the columns of the COMMERCIAL that your treatment was so mild and universally successful, I resolved to place myself immediately under it. Last Saturday I was so deaf that I could not have heard the ticking of a watch, even if placed against my ear. To-day—after the lapse of only one week since you took my case in hand—I find my hearing restored so that I hear distinctly, and am now in the way of complete and permanent recovery from the causes which produced my deafness.

Yours, truly, JOHN NOONAN,
Irwin street.

From Esquire A. B. Stevenson, Magistrate at Birmingham.

To the Public.—I certify that I had been severely afflicted for years with Catarrh of the Head, Bronchitis, Heaviness in the Chest, and Impaired Hearing. In this deplorable state I was providentially induced to apply to Dr. Aborn, at 134 Smithfield street. In ten days after commencing his treatment, I am most happy to acknowledge that I have almost entirely recovered from every symptom from which I had so long suffered. My hearing also is almost entirely restored to its original acuteness as the fruit of his skilled and scientific treatment.

A. B. STEVENSON.

Remarkable Cure of a Complication of Disorders.

HILLSVILLE, PA., July 29, 1867.

Dr. E. S. Aborn, No. 134 Smithfield street, Pittsburgh, Pa:

Dear Sir: I write a few lines to inform you of the results of your treatment in my complication of ailments. My eyes are improving and are nearly well. My hearing has improved, and the pain in my breast has been very much relieved, and, I think, in a short time, will be entirely eradicated.

Yours, respectfully,
JOSEPH DICKSON.

Hearing Restored in Five Minutes.

When I applied to Dr. Aborn, 134 Smithfield street, I was so deaf in my right ear that I could not hear my watch tick when pressed against it, and had been so for years. In five minutes time he restored my hearing. Now I can hear my watch tick at a distance of eight inches. This I consider a remarkable cure.

A Lady Restored to Health.

When I placed myself in the hands of Dr. Aborn, nine days ago, I was so prostrated from a complication of Diseases of the chest that I was scarcely able to move from my bed. My appetite was entirely gone. My stomach was so diseased that it was almost impossible for me to retain a tablespoonful of gruel. My liver was alarmingly deranged. A constant pain in my head, chest, side, back; in fact, life was a burden to me in this suffering condition. Indeed, I was fast merging to an early grave. But thanks to the skillful hand of Dr. Aborn, I am once more restored to former health. As soon as forty-eight hours after commencing his medicines I found a change taking place in my system. So speedy, successful and satisfactory has been the effect of his remedies in my distressing disease that in justice to him and that the poor afflicted may know where to find a true and scientific gentleman, I have cheerfully made known the fact concerning my case.

MARY J. MEEHAN,

Dyspepsia and Disease of the Liver Cured.

Six weeks ago I applied to Dr. Aborn, at No. 134 Smithfield street, with painful affection of the chest. For two years I had been afflicted with dyspepsia and liver affection. I was very weak and reduced in flesh. During the brief period of six weeks under Dr. Aborn's new treatment I have quite recovered, and gained my former strength.

From an Optician.

Mr. Wm. N. Ogden, Optician, No. 50 Fifth street, well known to the citizens of Pittsburgh, is mentioned by permission, as having been successfully and scientifically treated by Dr. Aborn, of No. 134 Smithfield street, in a severe case of disease of the eye, and to whom Dr. Aborn respectfully refers.

Successful Treatment of the Ear.

Editor Commercial:—DEAR SIR:—I made known through the columns of your paper in October last, that Dr. Aborn had restored my hearing and removed a constant disagreeable buzzing noise from my ears, by one operation, in five minutes time, without cutting, probing or producing a particle of pain. It gives me a peculiar pleasure in restating the fact, and that the cure is permanent. I cheerfully state that the Doctor, apart from his extraordinary skill, is a gentleman of candor. Not like many whom I consulted previous to calling on him; he makes no extravagant promises for the purpose of inducing patients to place themselves under his treatment. Having given indubitable evidence of his skill, he leaves it to the patient to decide whether or not he shall have his services, which a reasonable person certainly will appreciate. My residence is in Jefferson county, Pa. When in the city of Pittsburgh, I stop at the St. Clair Hotel.

A grateful patient,
HENRY BROWN.

Granulated Sore Eye Cured.

I have been afflicted for a long time with a sore eye, which had baffled all ordinary treatment. Having heard of the successful treatment of Dr. Aborn, at 134 Smithfield street, I was determined to give him a trial in my case, and it gives me great pleasure to say that he has performed a perfect cure in seven days. Persons suffering from a disease of the eye will find Dr. Aborn one of the most skillful surgeons in the United States. He does not torture you to death in trying to cure you, but his manipulations are done with great skill and with soothing effect.

JOHN WARNER,
284 Ohio street, Allegheny.

NOTE.—Dr. Aborn devotes especial attention to the treatment of all diseases incident to the Eye, Ear, Heart, Throat and organs of the Chest. Will be professionally at his rooms, No. 134 Smithfield street, from 9 A. M. to 4 P. M.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

SATURDAY EVENING, September 21, 1867.

The most remarkable feature in monetary affairs is the great change that has, during the past week, taken place in the condition of the New York money market. The whole tendency seems toward stringency, and it is the general expectation among the banks that there will be a decided stringency, and some uneasiness is expressed that when the heavy demand comes for moving the cotton crop and the fall wants of the West are more fully developed, that the Eastern money centers will be stripped of their supplies, and money will rule excessively tight. This change already shows itself sensibly in the heavy decline in the price of Governments, and the fall of stocks generally that has taken place within the past week. There seems to be a general disposition among holders to realize, and there is quite a panicky feeling prevailing. The decline of the last three days has induced a general calling up of margins upon stock loans, which, as usual, causes a large amount of stock to be thrown upon the market.

—The Herald of yesterday says: There has been more wailing and gnashing of teeth among the holders of stocks, and Wall street is even more panic stricken than it was. Prices have fallen with surprising rapidity and stocks have been pressed for sale in large amounts, but the excitement is undiminished, and with most of the banks, the Treasury officials and gigantic combination of strong houses against them, the bulls begin to despair of surviving the terrible onslaught of the bears. The predictions of the latter have thus far been realized, and they still say that the trouble has hardly commenced, and that next week will be an infinitely worse one than this.

—The quotations from New York to-day received at the banking houses of McVay & Co., and James T. Brady & Co., show the following decline in all the series of the Government bonds:

U. S. 6s 1881	110
U. S. 5-20s, 1862	111
U. S. 5-20s, 1864	109¼
U. S. 5-20s, 1865, May and November	110
U. S. 5-20s, 1865, January and July	107½
U. S. 10-40s	99½
December Compounds, 1864	118½
June 7-30s	106½
July 7-30s	106½
Gold	142
U. S. 5-20s, 1867	107½

—The railway stock market as reported at noon to-day to Mr. S. S. Bryan shows the following quotations:

Michigan Southern	75½
Cleveland & Pittsburgh Railroad	79
Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago Railroad	100
Erie Railroad	61
Chicago & Northwestern Railroad	40

—Why all this ado about the kind of currency in which the bonded indebtedness of the United States will be paid. It is emphatically discounting imaginary difficulties which politicians, such as Pendleton, Vallandigham, Butler and others, wish to stir up for their own personal popularity. Senator Morton, of Indiana, says:

"In fifteen years, and possibly in five, the difference in value between gold and greenbacks will have ceased to exist, by a gradual return to specie payment, and the question of the mode of payment of the bonds, whether in gold or greenbacks, will have become unimportant. Specie payments can be reached without contracting the currency, by waiting a reasonable time, until successful reconstruction and the growth of wealth and business have brought the country up to the existing volume of currency without a financial convulsion."

—An important notice to the bondholders of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company is given in the following preamble and resolution, adopted at a recent meeting of the Board of Directors:

WHEREAS, Numerous applications have been made to this Company from the holders of the first and second Mortgage Coupon Bonds to convert the same into the Registered General Mortgage Bonds, dated July 1, 1867; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Treasurer be and he is hereby instructed to cause public notice to be given that this Company is now prepared to exchange its Registered Bonds, secured by a general mortgage upon the line from Philadelphia to Pittsburgh, of the estate, real and personal, and corporate franchises thereon, therein dated July 1, 1867, for the First and Second Mortgage Coupon Bonds of said Company, on the road between Harrisburg and Pittsburgh.

—S. S. Bryan, Broker in bonds, stocks and real estate, Apollo Building, Fourth street. Mortgages bought and sold. Orders for the purchase and sale of stocks and bonds executed in New York and Philadelphia at the rates of commission current in those cities.

WEEKLY REVIEW OF THE OIL MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH COMMERCIAL, MONDAY September 23, 1867.

BUSINESS—During the week presented various changes—one day sellers having all the advantages whilst the next day would give the other side the advantage. The truth of the matter is the market is pretty well sold out. Most of the oil has changed hands about as often as it can stand; in fact the largest portion of the sales for weeks past being resales of contracts, the seller obtaining the difference in cash or due-bill as agreed on by the parties interested. The week's operations in crude were 22,800 bbls against 57,200 bbls for the week ending the 14th, being a falling off amounting to 34,400 bbls. The sales this week of refined oil were 33,800 bbls against 40,000 bbls for the week ending September 14th, being a falling off reaching 6,200 bbls. The week's receipts of crude were 1,995 bbls against 1,200 bbls the previous week; increase 795 bbls. The exports of refined by rail were 11,673 bbls against 10,700 bbls the week previous; increase 973 bbls.

CRUDE—The receipts at Pittsburgh from all points by river and railroads, from the 1st of January to September 21st, amount to 659,888 barrels. The amount received for the same period in 1866 was 767,901 barrels, being a falling off this season of 108,013 barrels. This can easily be accounted for by the continued low water in the Allegheny. For example, the river receipts of crude for the week ending September 22d, 1866, amounted to 33,435 barrels. The same week this year the receipts were less than 2,000 barrels. Below will be found a condensed account of the week's operations:

Monday—The market opened dull, exhibiting no improvement up to the close. The entire sales of crude were 2,000 bbls of crude for all 1867, B. O., 12½c; S. O., 12c.

Tuesday—The market continued weak, with a limited demand. The sales were 5,000 bbls first and second water at 12½@12¾c, inside 30 days; B. O., 13c, were the figures.

Wednesday—Nothing done except sales of 110 bbls to arrive at 13c. Oil not wanted.

Thursday—Another dull day, the only sale reported being 10,000 bbls tank oil on the spot. The terms were not made public. The market is pretty bare.

Friday—The market was without animation, the only transaction reported being a lot of 1,200 bbls bulk, deliverable the first Allegheny rise at 12¼c ⅌ gallon. A rise of water would cause a stir among dealers.

REFINED OIL—The market during a portion of the week was active. Dealers, on certain occasions, were excited. On Thursday prices were the highest we have recorded for some time; September reached 34c and October 35c, and for the last three months, 34½c was obtained.

Saturday—The market was what oil men term off; buyers absented themselves. So far as relates to refined we did not learn of a single transaction. We omit figures as they would fail to give a fair indication of the market.

CRUDE—The only sale reported was 300 bbls Allegheny bulk, the first water, at 12c. a decline of one-half cent ⅌ gallon from the previous day. We heard of a 5,000 bbl lot being offered at 12¼c for all the year buyer's option, without finding a purchaser.

PRODUCE AND GENERAL MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH COMMERCIAL, SATURDAY EVENING, September 21, 1867.

BUSINESS—The market on Saturday was dull. This, however, is no unusual occurrence for the last day of the week, the demand for the leading articles being principally confined to lots to meet the wants of the home market. The weather was pleasant. The resumption of navigation on the slackwater will improve trade in the vicinity of the landing. The first packets left on Saturday evening. The Franklin, of the old line, and the Chieftain, of the People's line, both had all the freight they could manage. The receipts of some of the leading articles of produce, per river and rail, since our last were as follows: Flour 1,770 bbls; apples 106 bbls; wheat 666 sacks; barley 1,266 sacks; rye 185 sacks; oats 585 sacks; corn 1,084 sacks; cheese 130 boxes, and butter 20 packages.

BUTTER—The market was very firm with a good demand for home purposes. The late advance has been fully sustained. We note further sales of keg at 25c, and fresh roll, for table use, at 30@32c ⅌ lb. The receipts were 20 pkgs.

GRAPES—Are coming in more freely. We note sales by the box at 8c ⅌ lb.

PEACHES—The market contains an abundant supply, the receipts by the western roads being large. There was no fixed price, some 140 boxes were disposed of at 75c@$1 00 ⅌ box, according to quality.

CHEESE—The market contains an ample supply, with a fair jobbing demand. Among the sales were 30 boxes Goshen at 15c; 40 boxes Western Reserve at 12@12½c; factory 14c, and Hamburg 13c ⅌ lb.

POTATOES.—The market has undergone no change for some days. We note sales of 50 bbls of "Jersey Sweets" at $5 00 ⅌ bbl. Sales of Neshannocks at 75@85c ⅌ bush.

EGGS—Firmness was the ruling feature; the late advance has been maintained. We notes sales of 12 bbls packed at 21@22c ⅌ doz.

LEAD—Further sales were reported to the extent of 400 pigs at 10¼c ⅌ lb.

GRAIN—We have nothing worth notice. The supply of most descriptions fell short of the demand. Wheat—Very firm and wanted; sales of a strictly prime article of red being reported at $2 30 ⅌ bush. Oats firm and wanted; sales 4 car loads at the elevator at 61c, a further advance. Corn wanted; sales of prime yellow shelled were made at $1 25@1 30 ⅌ bush. The present figures will be apt to increase the receipts; later 400 bush sold at the latter figures. Rye was inquired for with sales of 200 bush at at $1 25 ⅌ bush. Barley—Sales of 400 bush spring at $1 20 ⅌ bush; fall was held at $1 28@1 30 ⅌ bush.

SEEDS—Not much doing; sales 100 bush flaxseed at $2 50. Timothy—Sales 50 bush at $3 00. Clover—No demand, nothing done.

LARD OIL—The market was steady, with a fair inquiry; sales 25 bbls No. 1 at $1 10@1 20; do No 2 at 90c ⅌ gallon.

FLOUR—This article attracted no extra attention; buyers took hold very sparingly. The receipts are steadily increasing, besides the mills are selling freely to the trade. The rates on Saturday were: New spring wheat in round lots $10 00@10 50; winter wheat $11 25@11 50, with the usual advance from store. Sales of choice Tennessee lots were made to the trade at $11 50, and Minnesota at $11 00 ⅌ bbl.

APPLES—The market was fairly supplied with this article; prices, however, were governed altogether by the quality, sales being made at $2 00@4 00 ⅌ bbl.

BACON—Holders were firm and not disposed to give way. Among the sales were the following: S. C. Hams, 8,000 lbs in lots 22½@23c; shoulders 12,000 lbs 15@15½c; sides ribbed, 5,000 lbs 17c, clear do 18c.

LARD—Was selling in a regular way at 14@14½c ⅌ lb.

MESS PORK—The last sales we reported were at $25 ⅌ bbl.

WHISKY—The market has undergone no change as regards prices or demand. We omit figures.

Vigorous Vitality.

The best defense against disease is a vigorous vitality. Disease is simply a struggle between the life-power and the invisible enemies that assail it; and the result depends upon the relative strength of the antagonistic principles. In proportion to the vigor and energy of the physique and the constitution is their capacity to resist and fight off the morbid influences which produce sickness. It is a well known fact that active poisons affect in different degrees the weak and the strong. The dose of opium or of arsenic that will suffice to kill a child will scarcely sicken a stalwart man. It is the same with the aerial poisons which produce epidemic and endemic fevers, dysenteries, fluxes and the like. Their effect upon the system depends upon its power of resistance. Augment, therefore, this resistant power, if you would escape these evils. The tonic agent necessary to effect this object has been provided in

RIVER NEWS.

Our River Correspondence.

Steamer Ezra Porter, Captain J. H. Porter, left New Orleans Friday night, September 13th, at 11 o'clock, with 325 tons freight and very few passengers. While at New Orleans I talked with quite a number of the old citizens, and they all agree in saying that the mortuary report falls far short of the true number of deaths daily from yellow fever. Sixty-seven was the most reported while we were there, yet the estimate was not less than one hundred and fifty. It is a well known fact that the regular modes of burial would not meet the demand, and carts, spring wagons, and such conveyances as could be had were used. The weather was very bad; rains every day, and as often as six or eight times during the day. From the best information I could get, for some days past the deaths would average 140 daily. I think it really foolish for men from the North who are not acclimated, to go to New Orleans during the prevalence of this dreaded epidemic, more particularly those who get sycophants, for I do think that fright has much to do with the disease. We are now forty-three hours out from New Orleans, have taken in twenty-five tons freight on the way, and made four or five landings for passengers. Will make Vicksburg in 48 hours, including way business—pretty good time for a short legged chap, the distance being 400 miles and 350 tons freight on board. We are well; crew and passengers have not had a single case of sickness. I do not feel that we are out of danger yet, as persons leaving New Orleans often take the disease at Memphis, but if we can get in 24 hours more run up toward "Ireland" I will feel that we are all O. K. I cannot say that I am afraid of the disease on my own account, as I have been in this country a good deal, yet I am like the darkey with the rabbit when it slipped from his hands, "go to the d—l; you're mighty dry meat any how." Hoping this may find my Pittsburgh friends O. K., I will only add more anon. Yours, &c., BOB.

THE RIVER AND MATTERS ALONG THE WHARF.—Business on the landing was active above the bridge. The Franklin, of the Mail Line, arrived and departed, with a good trip. She is announced to leave this (Monday) morning at eight o'clock. The E. Bennett, Captain Cox, will be down in time to leave this evening at five o'clock. The steamer Chieftain, Captain Hendrickson, left on Sunday, with a big trip. She will be back in time to leave this afternoon at five o'clock.

SPECIAL NOTICE TO RIVER MEN.—There will be a special meeting of steamboat captains and owners on Tuesday, the 24th instant, at 10 A. M., at the office of the Pittsburgh Insurance Company, corner of Market and Water streets. Punctual attendance is requested as business of importance will come up for adjustment. By order.

BROWNSVILLE AND GENEVA.—The People's Line packet Chieftain, Capt. Hendrickson, leaves the Company's wharfboat this afternoon at 5 o'clock. This boat is in splendid order and offers the best accommodations to persons going that way.

HO! FOR BROWNSVILLE AND GENEVA.—The fine packet Franklin, Capt. Carmack, leaves the old line wharfboat this day at 8 A. M. positively, for the above and intermediate points. To persons going that way the present opportunity should not be neglected.

BROWNSVILLE AND GENEVA.—The new and splendid passenger steamer Elisha Bennett, Capt. M. A. Cox, takes her departure this day at five o'clock for Brownsville and all intermediate points. She is fitted up in a style superior to anything in the trade. Capt. Cox is a large favorite with the public, and [illegible] again on the track with the favorite Bennett.

SUICIDE.—A [illegible] the steamer Mountaineer, on the Missouri river, on Sunday last, in a singular manner. He came on board at some point on the river, and without registering his name, paid the price of passage demanded, and [illegible] quietly [illegible] smoothly until [illegible] when the boat was about [illegible] and the [illegible] ceded to [illegible] rest and [illegible] no more.

DEATH OF A WELL-KNOWN CITIZEN.—It is with sorrow that we record the death of Captain John Frees, an old river man, and a gentleman highly esteemed by all who knew him. The family of Capt. Frees reside in this city, on Center street. He had been absent for some time, having been in New Orleans. Mr. F. recently received a letter from the Captain [illegible] uneasy [illegible] yellow fever [illegible] who were afraid of [illegible] to show her friends in North [illegible] return [illegible] that Captain Frees died on Wednesday in New Orleans, of yellow fever. His demise will be lamented by a large circle of acquaintances.

THE BANKERS'

GRAND

Presentation Enterprise.

THE COMMITTEE APPOINTED

WILL POSITIVELY DISTRIBUTE THE PRIZES AT THE

THIRD GRAND CONCERT

THAT WILL TAKE PLACE AT

IRVING HALL,

NEW YORK,

Tuesday, Sept. 24th, 1867.

BANKERS' AND MERCHANTS' SECOND GRAND CONCERT was given at Irving Hall, August 24th. It was a grand success. The large hall was filled with the most respectable citizens of New York. The Committee that was appointed at the first Concert, announced to the audience that they would distribute the prizes at the next Concert, which will take place at Irving Hall, on the 24th of September, 1867.

When the Committee made this announcement, the audience gave immense applause. They were pleased to know that the prizes would be distributed at the next Concert on the 24th.

This Grand Distribution of Prizes will be conducted on the

MUTUAL BENEFIT PRINCIPLE.

A PRO RATA DISTRIBUTION OF PROFITS TO TICKET HOLDERS.

CAPITAL, - $1,287,148.

TICKETS ONE DOLLAR EACH,

And limited to One Million Two Hundred and Eighty-seven Thousand One Hundred and Forty-Eight.

THE FAIREST AND MOST IMPARTIAL PLAN OF PRESENTATION YET OFFERED TO THE PUBLIC.

A Prize with Every Ticket.

PROSPECTUS.

A number of the leading Bankers and Merchants of New York, in consideration of the great success which has attended many of the Charitable Presentation Entertainments of the day, have formed themselves into a company, with the view of inaugurating an enterprise which, while it shall return them a fair profit, shall offer greater advantages to ticket-purchasers than any yet presented; and which being conducted upon a perfectly legitimate and business basis, shall be free from those objectionable features which have characterized many of these enterprises.

To this end they have consigned the sale of tickets, and the registering the same, to Clark, Webster & Co., Bankers and Managers, No. 62 Broadway, New York, who will keep the records in their custody until the day of the Grand Presentation Entertainment, when they will be handed over to a committee selected by the audience to make an impartial distribution of presents

A reference to the number of presents and the general plan of distribution, given below, will convince even the most skeptical of the great advantages which will accrue to all who participate in the enterprise; and the Commercial and Financial standing of the Company, and the Managers and Bankers thereof, will, they hope, prove a sufficient guaranty of the fairness and impartiality with which everything in connection with the scheme will be conducted, and that the interests of ticket-holders will be most strictly watched over and guarded. In fact, it is the desire of the Managers to conduct every transaction for the mutual benefit of whoever shall purchase a ticket, and scrupulously to avoid any and everything which could in the slightest degree diminish the profits which are likely to accrue to all who invest.
